Ulster County Postwar Fair Draws Thousands, Event Is One of Best in Farm History

Displays of Vegetables, Fruits Exceptional; Cattle, Poultry Are in Abundance

Splendid 4-H Show

Boys' and Girls' Exhibit Are Among Features at Forsyth Park

A vivid idea of the agricultural riches of Ulster county was gained at first hand today by the thousands who attended the annual Ulster County Fair at Forsyth Park. The fair was omitted during the war years.

Ideal weather prevailed as people from all sections of the city and county crowded into the big uptown park to view what was considered one of the best fairs held here in years.

This year the exhibit of fruits and vegetables was exceptionally fine. A slight idea of the magnitude of the fruit and vegetable crop from Ulster's farms was obtained as one strolled through the various exhibits.

Pears, peaches, apples were among the fruit exhibited, and if the samples shown at the fair are any indication the fruit and vegetable crop this year will be one of the finest harvested in years.

City Garden Display

Of interest to the city people was the exhibit of vegetables grown in the City Home garden on Flatbush avenue. Included in the exhibit were ripe tomatoes, onions, carrots, beans, cabbage and squash. All of the vegetables exhibited had been planted and raised by the inmates of the City Home.

This year the fruit, vegetables, cattle and horses shown by the 4-H Club members of Ulster County attracted considerable attention.

The exhibits gave an excellent idea of the work that is being accomplished by the future farmers of Ulster county.

Among the exhibits shown by the 4-H Clubs were clothing which had been designed and made by the girls. This exhibit included dresses and other wearing apparel. It showed that the girls of the county have an idea of what is both fashionable as well as wearable.

The cattle exhibited by the boys and girls of the 4-H Clubs were among the finest shown at the fair. Since early morning the youthful owners were busy scrubbing and brushing the live stock to have the cattle and horses ready for exhibition when the fair opened at 10 o'clock.

This year there were two judging rings, one for cattle and one for horses.

The cattle exhibit was one of the finest ever seen at Forsyth Park, and Guernsey, Holstein and other breeds were shown.

Both rings adjoined each other so that the work of judging both the cattle and the horses could be carried on expeditiously.

One of the big attractions for the boys who attended the fair was the big white stallion which a sign over the pen said was "Silver" the horse of the Lone Ranger of radio fame.

Another attraction was the young trained fawn owned by Jack Kemble of Kyserike. The fawn was found when it was a day old and its owner says it is now three months old.

The Grange Booth

One of the big tops houses the Grange exhibits where the eight Granges, Asbury, Patroon, Lake Katrine, Rosendale, Ulster, Clintondale, Highland and Huguenot are competing for top honors.

All eight booths are artistically decorated and are exhibiting vegetables, fruit, as well as household articles.

Attendance at the fair today started early and by noon the attendance was greatly swelled, and those in charge said that they expected an attendance of fully [illegible] people before the fair closes at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

Arrangements to park automobiles in the municipal stadium left ample room for the crowds to wander about the grounds and view the exhibits.

Several State Troopers were on

Ceilings Clamped Back on Meat, Milk and Butter Remain Free

Predict Shortage Of Meat in Month

Ceiling Prices Will Be Enforced More Vigorously Than Ever Before

New York, Aug. 21 (AP)—Callman Gottesman, O.P.A. district enforcement chief, said today a shortage of meat could be expected within a month but added that ceiling prices would be enforced more vigorously than ever before to prevent a resurgence of illegal operations.

The meat enforcement staff, held intact during the weeks since the old meat controls expired, Gottesman said, will take action as soon as controls ordered last night go into effect Friday morning.

He said the meat staff would be enlarged to fight "black marketing practices" before they became entrenched.

"We're going to get on top of any meat black market and stay on it until it's crushed," Gottesman said.

Board Rules Against Restoring Ceilings on Nearly All Grains; Decision Made

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

Washington, Aug. 21 (AP)—Pork chops, beefsteak, hamburger and all other meats are going back under O.P.A. ceilings "at or close" to June 30 prices.

Milk, butter, cheese and all other dairy products remain free of ceilings, but controls will be slapped back on if prices of those items jump further.

Those main decisions of the Price Decontrol Board prompted widely varying reactions.

The meat industry spoke of dangers that black markets might spring up again and that the public would find less meat to buy.

And the C.I.O. cost of living committee said the decision to keep dairy products free of controls "will bring greater inflation to the American people."

On other points in its first decision, the congressionally created Decontrol Board:

1. Ruled against restoring ceilings on nearly all grains.

2. Authorized livestock and

Express Fear Of Black Market

C.I.O. Official Terms Any Such Talk as Strictly Phony

(By The Associated Press)

Fear of a "black market" in meat was expressed today by some meat industry spokesmen in commenting upon revival of price ceilings, but a C.I.O. official termed such talk "strictly phony."

Industry reaction to the Decontrol Board's order was mostly unfavorable, although one official representing some eastern retailers and independent slaughterers, termed it "courageous."

Some congressmen from livestock states deplored return of O.P.A. ceilings on meat as inviting chaos and confusion.

The American Meat Institute spokesman for the packing industry, declared "stern enforcement measures" will be required "to prevent a return of all the evils of the black market, including maldistribution, shortages and waste of valuable by-products."

However, Ralph Helstein, C.I.O. United Packinghouse Workers president, asserted "any talk of the return of the black market is strictly phony. * * * the black market never was large enough to make a noticeable dent on our resources of livestock. It was ballyhooed by the big packers to place the blame for artificial scarcity on little men who weren't there."

Jack Kranis, president of the National Meat Industry Council, said the decision was "a courageous one."

Congressional comment included:

Rep. Wadsworth (R.-N. Y.)—"I am glad they kept dairy products and grain free from controls, but sorry that the same treatment was not given livestock and meats.

Buenos Aires Disorders

Buenos Aires, Aug. 21 (AP)—Police announced today that 45 persons had been arrested as the result of disorders which occurred here last night when Nationalist groups staged a street demonstration against the Argentine senate's action in approving the Act of Chapultepec and the United Nations San Francisco accord.

Mounted police and troops armed with tear gas were called to disperse the demonstrators.

Rent Director Warns About Registering Living Quarters

Nearly all rental housing, including houses, apartments and sleeping rooms in the Poughkeepsie rental area must be registered at the area rent office for the protection of both the landlord and the tenant, Charles C. Hoag, area rent director, said today.

"Families who are doubling up to make room in their homes for returning veterans and their families during the acute housing shortage should be commended", Mr. Hoag said. "We want to encourage as many as possible to follow their example and can assure them that they will find it easy to comply with O.P.A. rent control regulations, which are fair alike to the landlord and the tenant.

"Obviously, it is just as essential to avert inflationary rents as it is to hold other living costs at fair levels through price control. Registration of all rental units promptly is so necessary for proper rent control that stiff penalties for violations—fines up to $5,000 or one year's imprisonment or both—are provided.

"We will gladly supply any new or prospective landlords with the necessary registration form which the landlord can fill out and file at the following offices: The Area Rent Office, located at 13 Washington street, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., a branch office located at 74 North Broadway, Nyack, N. Y., or rent stations located at 150 Liberty street, Newburgh, N. Y., 16 Mulberry street, Middletown, N. Y., and Municipal Auditorium, Kingston, N. Y."

Farm Houses Excluded

Mr. Hoag explained that the only properties rented or offered for rent as living quarters that need not be registered are farm homes if the tenant is working on the farm a substantial part of his time and combination stores and

Says Country Intends to Insist Upon Its Sovereignity; He Saw Plane Downed

Marshal Shouts

Says Country Wants Peace but Not at Any Price

By GEORGE PALMER

Belgrade, Aug. 21 (AP)—Marshal Tito, in a speech published today, stoutly defended Yugoslavia's course in which two American planes have been brought down in ten days, declared the country intends to insist upon its sovereignty and shouted that Yugoslavia wanted peace "but not peace at any price."

Saying he had witnessed the downing of one of the unarmed American transport planes, Tito denied the craft was lost in the clouds or was fired upon. Previous eyewitnesses and official American accounts said the first plane strayed over Yugoslav territory from its course on a flight from Vienna, Austria, to Udine, Italy August 9 and was forced to land after Yugoslav fighter planes wounded one of the passengers.

Although Tito mentioned witnessing only one incident and did not mention the date, he was believed to have seen both. The second involved a C-47 brought down August 19 near Bled. Tito was in Bled on August 19.

The Yugoslav Foreign Ministry in a note acknowledged last night that Yugoslav fighter planes attacked the transport and sent it crashing, probably with some fatal casualties.

Speaks to Iron Workers

Tito spoke before iron factory workers yesterday at Jesenice, near Bled. He charged that almost every day brought "incessant new violations of our frontiers and territory."

"You know, I repeat," he said, "that almost every day not only civilian but military planes flew over our territory, not single planes alone, but even whole squadrons."

The premier charged that even while peace negotiations were going on, "we have come to realize that certain countries which during the war of liberation marched together with us do not wish a peace of liberation but an imperialistic peace."

He said the sacrifices of Russia, Yugoslavia, Poland and other countries "and their tremendous contribution toward victory in having carried the main burden of the war" appeared now not to be recognized.

He declared that Yugoslavia would strive to achieve peace, but "certain imperialistic great powers wish to accuse us of not wanting peace, just as they wish to accuse the Soviet Union of not wanting peace after having sacrificed millions of its best sons and daugh-

Firemen Take Up Band Question at Meeting Last Night

County Volunteers Pass Resolution Permitting the Hiring of Any Musical Unit

The barring of the Clayton Band of Ellenville, a non-union organization, from taking part in the firemen's parade held in Kingston in July, resulted in the Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association at its meeting last night in the Central Fire Station adopting a resolution that "at future parades and gatherings all companies be allowed to have any musical unit they desired."

Bruno Strini of Scoresby Hose Co. of Ellenville offered the resolution, which was seconded by Thomas Ingram of Pioneer Engine Co. of Ellenville, and adopted.

A motion to table the resolution, offered by Nelson W. Snyder of this city, was lost by an overwhelming vote.

The Pioneer Engine Co. had engaged the Clayton Band for the firemen's parade which brought the 11th annual convention of the county firemen to a close, but when the Musicians' Union threatened to withdraw from the parade the three union bands that had been engaged by three of the Kingston fire companies, the parade committee voted unanimously to bar the Clayton Band from the parade.

Pioneer Hose Co. was notified

Mrs. St. George Defeats Bennet; Organization Candidates Are Victors

Senator Wicks Beats Mrs. Goss 5,169 to 894

Senator Arthur H. Wicks received the Republican nomination for state senator at the primaries held Tuesday, and incomplete returns from the districts show that he ran far ahead of Mrs. Elva Goss of Bloomville, his opponent for the nomination.

Up to noon today incomplete returns showed that Senator Wicks had polled 5,169 votes to the 894 votes cast for Mrs. Goss in the four counties of the senatorial district.

Seventy districts reported up to noon today in Ulster county, showing 1,303 votes cast for Senator Wicks in the county, and 446 in the city, while Mrs. Goss polled 45 votes in the county and 15 in the city.

Incomplete returns in Delaware county show Wicks, 1,900; Mrs. Goss, 610.

Sullivan county, 1,126 for Wicks; 191 for Mrs. Goss.

Greene county, 394 for Wicks and 33 for Mrs. Goss.

The only contest in Ulster county this year was that for the nomination for state senator on the Republican ticket.

There were no contests on the Democratic ticket.

Resurgence of G.O.P. Effectiveness Shown in Certain Sections of New York City

By HENRY LEADER

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 21 (AP)—Organization candidates, including nine of the 12 congressional incumbents who faced opposition, rolled to victory yesterday in New York's Primary Election which demonstrated a resurgence of Republican effectiveness in sections of New York city.

Three New York city congressmen fought by the G.O.P. organization were defeated in bids for Republican nominations. They were Rep. Joseph Clark Baldwin of the 17th (Silk Stocking) District, Rep. Vito Marcantonio of the 18th and Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, Jr., of the 22nd.

Upstate, six incumbent Republican congressmen were successful in bids for renomination. An exception was Rep. Augustus W. Bennet of Newburgh, who in one of the more intersting races was defeated by Mrs. Katherine St. George of Tuxedo Park.

Highlighting 34 Primary battles for assembly seats was the victory of Irwin Steingut, Democratic leader of the assembly, over Paul Seiderman in the 18th Kings (Brooklyn) District.

Three of the four Republican incumbents engaged in contests for state senate nominations came out on top. They were Senators Arthur H. Wicks of Kingston, William Bewley of Lockport and Edmund P. Radwan of Buffalo.

Senator Robert S. Bainbridge of Staten Island was eliminated by Robert E. Johnson.

Despite fair, warm weather, the voting was light. It was spirited only in districts that had contests. Baldwin, a member of congress since 1941, fell before State Senator Frederick R. Coudert, Jr., in the Silk Stocking District.

Coudert Wins

Complete returns gave Coudert 10,265 and Baldwin 2,004.

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey and his wife voted in the district last night. Dewey's chief Manhattan political lieutenant, Secretary of State Thomas J. Curran, led the G.O.P. organization forces behind Coudert.

Aides of Baldwin claimed before the balloting that the organization denied him redesignation because he had voted for some major New Deal measures opposed by the Republican rank and file in the House.

Baldwin won the American Labor Party nomination without opposition but said in conceding defeat that he would not oppose Coudert in the general election next November.

"The Republicans of the district have made their decision. I intend to abide by that decision and continue my fight as a liberal Republican within the party," Baldwin said.

He added that although his name would be on the A.L.P. ballot in November, "I urge my many friends not to vote for me but to cast their votes as they think best for the candidate who, in their opinion, will best represent their views."

The Democratic nominee is Maurice McCarthy, Jr.

Defers Decision On Dewey, Mead

State Federation of Labor Resolutions Go to Committee

Rochester, N. Y., Aug. 21 (AP)—The State Federation of Labor today deferred its decision as to whether it should endorse Governor Dewey or Senator Mead for nomination and election as governor.

The resolutions committee recommended that opposing resolutions for endorsement of Dewey and Mead be referred to a non-partisan committee and the action was approved by the delegates.

Anthony A. Capone, president of the Rochester Central Trades and Labor Council and head of a Mead-for-governor committee, approved the action of the resolutions committee although he previously had said he would call for a special A.F.L. convention if such a recommendation were made. He explained:

"I do not intend to disrupt the unity of this convention by bringing out on the floor a matter which under the constitution must be referred to a non-partisan committee.

"We feel we expressed the wishes of rank and file delegates, we challenge political appointees who are trying to bring about endorsement of their candidates."

There were six resolutions proposing Mead endorsements and six for Dewey.

Major Row Breaks Into Open Over Congressional Probes

By CLAIR JOHNSON

Washington, Aug. 21 (AP)—A major row broke into the open today over congressional investigation of this year's election campaigns.

The issues which sharply split two special committees set up to do the job are:

1. How fast the inquires should proceed.

2. The procedure to be followed in certain cases, such as looking into the role of the C.I.O.'s Political Action Committee.

The full was pointed up today by a statement from Rep. Leo Allen (R-Ill) that election law violations "are being encouraged" by what he termed committee "stalling and delay."

Allen, No. 1 Republican on the House campaign expenditures committee, told a reporter he has considered resigning because he is "so disgusted with the lack of action" by his group. The committee has not met since Speaker Rayburn (D-Texas) named it early this month.

Allen said he "cannot understand" why Rep. O'Neal (D-Ky) has not started an investigation. O'Neal has made no comment since Rayburn annoyed southern Democrats by choosing him instead of Rep. Domengeaux (D-La) as chairman. Domengeaux had pledged an all-out inquiry into the C.I.O.'s activities.

There have been reports that O'Neal intends to withdraw from the group, but no one in authority has been willing to comment on them.

Allen acknowledged that "there will be quite a fight" over the C.I.O. when the committee does begin operations.

The Senate campaign expenditures committee conducted hearings in July on the Montana primary, but a controversy interrupted and it has not acted since. An aide said today, however, that Chairman Ellender (D-La) expects to call a meeting the first week of September.

Relations Plummet To New Low

Note Declares Turkey Be Made Responsible for the Defense of the Straits

Angry Protest

Two Top Ranking Admirals Leave for Europe

By ALEX H. SINGLETON

Washington, Aug. 21 (AP)—In an historic claim to direct interest in Black Sea affairs, the United States today formally declared its outright opposition to Russian demands for a share in military control of the Dardanelles.

The American note to Moscow was one of two factors that sent relations between the United States and countries within the Soviet orbit plumetting to a new postwar low.

The other was this country's angry protest to Yugoslavia over the "outrageous performance" of Yugoslav fighter craft which attacked and forced an American transport plane to crash land. Premier Marshal Tito retorted that this country wants peace "but not at any price."

Bearing the signature of Under Secretary of State Dean Acheson, the Dardanelles note expressed the "firm opinion of this government that Turkey should continue to be primarily responsible for the defense of The Straits."

Pointedly, it noted that the Russian proposal contained no reference to the United States—a clear-cut reminder that an international organization has been set up to handle all such security problems.

"Should the Straits become the object of attack or threat of an attack by an aggressor," the note declared, "the resulting situation would constitute a threat to international security and would clearly be a matter for action on the part of the Security Council of the United Nations."

The American note, however, did set its seal of "general agreement" on three of the Soviet proposals, namely:

"1. The Straits should be always open to the passage of merchant ships of all countries.

"2. The Straits should be always open to the passage of warships of the Black Sea powers.

"3. Passage through the Straits for warships not belonging to the Black Sea powers shall not be permitted except in cases specially provided for."

Acheson handed the note to Fedor Orekhov, Russian charge d'affaires in Washington, on Monday. In accordance with diplomatic courtesy, however, its contents were not disclosed officially until noon today.

Even as the strain on relations intensified from Trieste to the Black Sea, the Navy announced that two of its top ranking admirals had left for Europe on a "routine inspection tour" that will include Mediterranean areas.

They are Adm. Marc A. Mitscher, acting commander of the Atlantic fleet, and Vice Adm. Forrest P. Sherman, deputy chief of naval operations.

The Navy's "routine" description came after London reports had said the two were en route to visit "troubled areas."

Whatever the purpose of their mission, the fact is that approaching Mediterranean maneuvers can serve to demonstrate United States naval might on hand to back up American diplomatic declarations.

Those declarations themselves appeared to be taking on a definitely tougher tone, reflecting the attitude in some Washington quarters that the time has come for the United States to mark a line beyond which it will not go in compromising established principles.

That tone dominated the acid protest which the government lodged yesterday against the action of Yugoslavia in attacking an American army plane August 9 and forcing it to crash land in a cornfield.

Fasten Cornice

New York, Aug. 21 (AP)—Workmen today resumed operations in making fast an 800-pound cornice stone at the 65th floor of the R.C.A. building in Rockefeller Center, while police barricaded part of the sidewalk in West 50th street below, diverting pedestrian traffic to the north side of the street.

L. I. Rail Strike Start Deadline Is Shoved Ahead

New York, Aug. 21 (AP)—The deadline for the start of a strike of 1,100 brakemen and ticket collectors on the Lond Island Railroad was advanced to 12:01 a. m. Friday after federal mediation efforts collapsed.

The strike originally was scheduled to start at 5 a. m., which meant that persons planning to remain in New York until midnight Thursday could catch trains home during the early morning hours.

But William Dalrymple, regional director of District 50, A.F.L. United Mine Workers, declared yesterday after a conference with Ross Foran, federal mediator in the dispute, that the strike start had been pushed ahead, declaring "August 23 starts at 12:01 a. m."

"The men will stay out until a contract satisfactory to the union has been signed." Dalrymple added.

District 50 is seeking new working rules providing for an eight-hour day, a minimum of one day off a week and increased vacation periods.

Foran after talks with road officials here and union leaders in Newark, N. J., said he would continue his efforts to achieve a settlement "right up to the last minute."

He added that possible action which could be taken by President Truman would be the naming of a fact-finding board or an order to the Office of Defense Transportation "to take over the road."

A vital factor in the effectiveness of the threatened strike will be the reaction of road employes who are members of the railroad brotherhoods. If they respect picket lines that District 50 plans to establish, service would be virtually ripped, Long Island officials said.

But if they work despite the lines, service could be maintained to a considerable extent, road officials said.

Rules on Wireless Strike

New York, Aug. 21 (AP)—Arthur S. Meyer, chairman of the New York State Meditation Board, paved the way for the return to work today of 300 Press Wireless, Inc., employes in ruling that the firm was not privileged under its union contract in laying-off 46 workers without advance arbitration. Both the C.I.O. American Communications Association and the company had agreed last week-end that Meyer's decision on the issue automatically would end a strike called by the union August 7.

Mrs. Raymond Webster of Linderman avenue was the first to notify the Freeman Monday that her plant was in bloom which she believed to be rare. Yesterday, Mrs. Martin Jordan of St. Remy reported a lily in bloom.

Fighting Must Stop Before Parley on Rule

Nanking, Aug. 21 (AP)—China's Communists announced today establishment of their own government of Manchuria, and said they would not discuss participating in any coalition government of China until all of the current fighting is stopped.

Some informed quarters here said that establishment of such a coalition had become "the last hope" of mediators seeking a permanent peace.

Communist spokesmen denied that their party was calling for all-out mobilization against Chiang Kai-Shek's forces, and said they "have no desire" to overthrow his national government—which is strictly a one-party regime now. But they added:

"The first thing is to stop fighting. Then we can talk about reorganizing the government."

Some observers here said that General Marshall and Ambassador John Leighton Stuart, having failed to stop the shooting first and talk politics later, now were trying to reach a political accord first.

Chiang, these sources said, had asked Marshall to request a list of ministries which Communists would demand in any coalition government.

Manchuria's new Red administration, the Communists' official radio at Yenan announced, is "the provisional supreme administration for democratic Manchuria," composed of 86 elected delegates from all sections, and aspiring to "a peaceful, prosperous Manchuria by uniting all . . ."

There was no report that it was operating directly under Yenan, the Communist capital, but its avowed goals were similar to those of the Yenan government.

Preaches Here Tonight

The Rev. Earl G. Lee, former pastor of the Church of the Nazarene in Kingston, and now outgoing missionary to India, will be the guest speaker this evening at 7:45 at the Church of the Nazarene, corner of Elmendorf street and Wiltwyck avenue. The Rev. Mr. Lee was pastor of the Nazarene Church for four years and was secretary to the Ministerial Association in Kingston. He will be accompanied by his wife and two children, Gary and Gayle. All desiring to hear him preach and see the family before they leave for India are urged to attend the service tonight.

President Looks Over Slav Problem As He Sails South

With President Truman en Route to Bermuda, Aug. 21 (AP)—President Truman, armed with a full report on the tense Yugoslavian situation, sailed into warmer southern waters today on his reverse-direction vacation cruise.

The Chief Executive's radio-telephone fill-in on incidents involving American Army planes attacked over Yugoslav territory came from Secretary of State Byrnes, who is in Paris for the Peace Conference.

Presidential Press Secretary Charles G. Ross told accompanying newsmen of the call shortly after he had advised them that the White House Yacht Williamsburg was headed for a berth in Bermula tomorrow afternoon. The President yesterday turned south from waters off New England after a nor'easter delayed his cruise.

The ship will land at the American naval operating base for fuel, water and food and "a minimum of ceremony." Presumably the governor general of the British crown colony will board the Williamsburgh to express an official welcome. The President then may go ashore to return the call.

Ross said Byrnes had telephoned the President from Paris at 5 p. m., apprising him "of all developments in the Yugoslavian situation."

"The President has no statement to make about it now," Ross added in the radio hookup with the navy ship Weiss.

"Whether he will have a statement depends on developments over there."

(In Washington yesterday Undersecretary of State Dean Acheson termed the attack on a weather-beset plane which was forced to crash land an "outrageous performance.")

Longshoremen To Buck Maritime In Lakes Strike

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 21 (AP)—The president of the A.F.L. International Longshoremen's Association has called upon all A.F.L. marine organizations on the Great Lakes to "wage an all-out fight" against the C.I.O. National Maritime Union's current lakes strike.

Joseph R. Ryan, declaring the N.M.U. "Communistically-controlled," said last night the C.I.O. union was "out to destroy the American Federation of Labor."

Speaking at a meeting of A.F.L. grain elevator employes, Ryan declared 'it would be the height of foolishness for any A.F.L. unit to take any action that would tend to strengthen the N.M.U."

In New York city Joseph P. Curran, president of the N.M.U. said in comment on Ryan's speech:

"Ryan can always be expected to blast any legitimate trade union action. That's all I have to say about him."

Curan declined any additional comment.

The strikers faced still another snag with announcement of a $375,000 damage suit against the N.M.U. being filed by three shipping firms who charged that the walkout was a breach of contract.

Officials of Cleveland Tankers, Inc., Lake Tankers Corp. of New York and the Great Lakes Transport Corp. of Detroit said in Cleveland they planned court action to "test the moral right" of a "few willful men" to "wantonly" break contracts.

Chinese Troops Move Deeper Into Manchuria

Peiping, Aug. 21 (AP)—Chinese newspapers asserted today that government troop trains were pouring through Mukden and on deeper into Manchuria for a drive westward within a day or two into North Jehol, Communist stronghold.

The newspaper Hsin Min Pao declared the Communists were feverishly preparing to defend Chengteh, Jehol's capital in the south central part of the province, and had moved all schools from the city.

A Communist source claimed five government armies were massing on Jehol's eastern border, and the government's Second Army was en route to Manchuria by sea. There was no official confirmation of all these reports.

The first three U. S. patent examiners were Thomas Jefferson, Henry Knox and Edmund Randolph.

Must File Sub-Leases

"Tenants who sublet portions o their homes or apartments and a landlords and tenants who sometimes rent out a room must file registration statement with th area rent office," Mr. Hoag said.

"It is through this required registration statement that the tenant is informed of his maximum rent since the landlord sends a copy to the tenant when he files the statement with the area rent office. New tenants or those who have never seen a copy of the registration statement can find out their maximum rent and the services it includes by asking their landlord to show them copies or, if he does not have a copy of it, by requesting the information at the area rent office."

State Commission Approves L. I. Projects

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 21 (AP)—The State Portwar Public Works Reconstruction Planning Commission has announced approval of three building projects for the Long Island Agricultural and Technical Institute at Farmingdale.

The projects' estimated cost is $580,130 based on 1941 computations, the commission said last night.

The projects: Frozen foods laboratory, $165,000; poultry instruction and disease laboratory building, $162,000, and a central heating plant, $253,130.

Jersey Bridge Collapses Over Manasquan River

Brielle, N. J., Aug. 21 (AP)—A 5-foot span of the Brielle-point Pleasant bridge over the Manasquan river on Route 35 collapsed yesterday, while automobile traffic was moving on other parts of the bridge.

Water under the fallen span is [illegible] feet deep.

Traffic piled up for two miles on both sides of the bridge until police began rerouting it over Route 34, adding four miles to the trip from Brielle to Point Pleasant.

Rudolph Prahst of Glen Ridge, who was fishing from a dock nearby, said, the bridge cracked in three places and snapped with a terrible crackling noise and crumpled," he said.

The sections which fell comprised 35 feet of the three-fourth of a mile long draw-bridge.

The cause of the collapse has not been determined.

Mrs. Roosevelt Is Definitely Coming For Labor Rally

Committee Will Complete Plans for August 28 Event at Clinton Hotel Tonight

The Ulster County Labor Committee which is sponsoring the appearance of Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt and nationally-prominent A.F.L. and C.I.O. speakers at the labor rally on Wednesday, August 28, at municipal auditorium, will hold a final preparatary meeting Friday at the Governor Clinton Hotel at 8 o'clock.

Despite printed statements by Mrs. Roosevelt that the recent automobile accident in which she was involved might cause her to cancel all engagements for the next couple weeks, the former First Lady plans to keep her Kingston speaking engagement.

Members of the County Labor Committee are proceeding with plans for Mrs. Roosevelt's first appearance in Kingston.

Reports on additional speakers will be available upon the return of A.F.L. county leaders from the Federation's annual state convention in Rochester. Fred Dusing, Sam Doyle and Tom Mitchell are the county A.F.L. figures seeking to line up a prominent A.F.L. representative. The C.I.O. speaker has been selected but announcement will be withheld until the A.F.L. man is chosen.

Predicts Success

On the eve of his departure for Rochester, Sam Doyle, co-chairman with Mrs. Mabel Fisher, predicted the success of the affair.

"Labor and the general public will back this rally," Mr. Doyle said. "We feel certain that a large number of Ulster county residents will want to hear Mrs. Roosevelt's address on labor."

Non-Political Affair

Chairman Doyle emphasized the non-partisan, non-political nature of the rally and said it was conceived by organized labor to place before the Ulster county people a true picture of the aims, principles and record of labor.

Mrs. Roosevelt informed a local committee several days ago that her speech would deal with the responsibilities of labor and the community toward each other. She promised that her speech could not in any sense be construed as political or partisan.

Tense Scenes in 'DangerousCorner'

J. B. Priestly Melodrama At Woodstock Playhouse

Tense scenes, played to the hilt, pack "Dangerous Corner," play in three acts at the Woodstock Playhouse this week. Opening last night the J. B. Priestly melodrama will continue through Sunday night.

Everyone seems to be turning a blind corner including the audience before the final curtain is rung down on this unusual turn of events. There is but one continuous setting in the Chatfield Country Home after the dinner hour; and one friendly group of people with an authoress as the special guest of the evening. In fact there are two authoresses in the midst.

The after dinner conversations soon become ominous at the mention of Martin, a deceased brother. Although the verdict was suicide at the time of his death almost a year previous, all thoughts soon turn to other possibilities and motives. Before the end of the evening each character is almost completely changed as hidden facts begin to unfold. The theft of a check is involved and as one of the characters says, "The truth is about as healthy as skidding around a corner at 60 miles an hour."

This suspense and inner turmoil as the secrets of each character are revealed requires superior acting ability to carry the audience along. The cast at Woodstock this week does just that in some of the finest portrayals this season and without the aid of any guest star. The cast for the most part is of the resident company.

Stephen Elliott, brother of the ill-fated Martin; Michael Sivy, favorite of Martin; and Robert Gill play the roles of three business partners. Jenny Lou Law and Ellen Hovde are two of the wives and Lois Clair and Winnifred Lane are the authoresses. Robert Gill is also directing.

Illusions come crashing down for all of the characters but there is also a big one for the audience.

Next week beginning Tuesday night Elissa Landi will be starred in George Bernard Shaw's "Candida."

Caught Waiting for Girl After Amazing Jailbreak

Doylestown, Pa., Aug. 21 (AP)—Robert Hendrickson, 21, of Philadelphia, enjoyed only 10 hours freedom after making what was described as "the most amazing escape" from Bucks county prison.

Hendrickson, charged with car theft, broke out of a solitary confinement cell, went through a steel mesh grating and a window, wriggled his 170 pounds through a hole five-and-one half by 13 inches, and climbed over a 10-foot barbed wire fence and a 31-foot wall.

Warden Earl D. Handy said Hendrickson was recaptured five miles from the jail, sitting in a parked car waiting to call on a girl friend.

Mrs. St. George Defeats Bennet

paid off in the 18th Congressional District of East Harlem and Yorkville, where Rep. Vito Marcantonio, the state's sole American Labor Party member of Congress, has reigned supreme. Marcantonio won the Democratic designation but was defeated in the Republican primary by Frederick V. P. Bryan. The final tally was: Bryan 3,641; Marcantonio 2,760.

In the Democratic primary, despite Tammany endorsement, Marcantonio encountered rugged opposition from Patrick J. Hannigan.

With all precincts reported, the count was: Marcantonio 9,778; Hannigan 9,216.

Marcantonio was unopposed for the A.L.P. nomination. Two years ago he was nominated by all three parties, defeating opponents in the Republican and Democratic primaries.

Bennet Concedes Defeat

Returns from the 29th Congressional District, covering Sullivan, Rockland, Delaware and Orange counties, gave Mrs. St. George 12,407 and Bennet 10,706 in 262 of the 278 precincts.

Bennet conceded defeat early today. Republican nomination in the district is usually tantamount to election.

Steingut rolled back Seiderman by a vote of 4,966 to 3,564.

A congressman who wrested the three party nominations in 1944 trailed Grant Reynolds in the Republican primary, Adam C. Powell won handily from Harold E. Simmelkjaer in the Democratic balloting and was unopposed in the A.L.P. lists in the 22nd District.

With only one of the 130 precincts missing from the tabulation, the tally stood: Reynolds 2,150, Powell 1,591; Powell 1,550, Simmelkjaer 671.

Charles P. McCabe won the Democratic nomination for representative from the 43rd Congressional District, defeating Louis J. Mayer.

The closest congressional race of the day, between Rep. Donald L. O'Toole and Arthur F. Hurley in the 13th district (Kings) Democratic primary remained undecided.

With one of the 155 precincts missing, Hurley led O'Toole by 11,684 to 11,552. Hurley had organization support.

In the Republican contest for representative in the same district, Charles H. Weadon defeated Angelo P. Costanzo and Willis C. Hanning. With one precinct of 155 missing the count was: Weadon 2,012; Costanzo 729; Hanning 1,345.

Tammany Man Wins

Former Assemblyman Daniel Flynn, endorsed by Tammany, won a four-cornered contest for the Democratic nomination for representative of the 21st District (Manhattan). He defeated Eugne P. Connolly, the A.L.P. nominee; Norman S. Rein and Jermiah J. Dullea.

Rep. William B. Barry trounced George H. Rooney, 16,819 to 5,075, in the Fourth District (Queens) Democratic primary.

In the Democratic primary in the 5th Congressional District (Queens), James A. Phillips swamped Lawrence Collins, 7,250 to 1,424.

Winners by substantial margins upstate included Republican representative John Taber of Auburn, Daniel Reed of Dunkirk, W. Sterling Cole of Bath, and Walter G. Andrews, Edward J. Elsaesser, and John C. Butler, all of Buffalo.

Will Suggest Changes To Help Vets Training

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 21 (AP)—Two state officials who say a new federal on-the-job training law works a "decided injustice" on veterans intend to suggest amendments when they have surveyed the law's effect in New York.

Industrial Commissioner Edward Corsi and Edward J. Neary, director of the state division of veterans' affairs, said yesterday that a new two-year limit on training would prevent veterans "from setting their sights on many fine positions." Many training programs will have to be revised or eliminated, they added in a joint statement.

New wage ceilings of $175 for veterans without dependents and $200 for those with dependents are particularly hard on New Yorkers, they said, asserting that the cost was relatively high in the state.

Gallagher Wins

White Plains, N. Y., Aug. 21 (AP)—County Judge Elbert T. Gallagher, Republican organization choice, today polled a better than 2-1 majority to win the G.O.P. nomination for Westchester county judge over City Judge Thomas N. Fasso of New Rochelle, N. Y. The final unofficial vote in the county's 407 districts was: Gallagher, 26,416; Fasso, 11,883.

The first census in the United States was taken in 1790.

Dewey and Bilbo Achieve Standoff In Their Pledges

Washington, Aug. 21 (AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York and Senator Bilbo (D-Miss) achieved a standoff in pledges today:

Dewey has guaranteed "there will be no Bilboism" in New York while he is governor.

Bilbo has promised "there will be no Deweyism in Mississippi as long as I live."

Dewey made his statement to an A.F.L. convention at Rochester Monday.

Replying last night in an interview, Bilbo said:

"Deweyism to the people of my state means F.E.P.C., Negro social equality, intermarriage between whites and blacks, hoodlumism, gangsterism, rape and the life of some poor Negro, on an average of one a night, year-round, snuffed out in blackest Harlem."

As for Dewey's declaration that there will be no New York meetings of the Ku Klux Klan "or any group like it," Bilbo commented:

"The Klan has always stood for the American flag, constitutional government and the American way of life." The Senator said publicly in a recent radio interview that he is a Klan member but has attended no meetings for years.

Bilbo dismissed reports that attempts will be made to deny him his Senate seat next January as "agitation by a bunch of damn Communists."

LOBBIES ON RECORD

Congress is finally putting the Washington lobbyists in their places. Before the high pressure specialists quite realized what was happening, the "Federal Regulation of Lobbying Act" became law as part of the government reorganization bill.

The persons employed by special interests to influence Congress can go right on, but the act rules that they have to be frank and public about the business. Everyone who is paid to influence elections or legislation is required to register every three months with the secretary of the Senate and clerk of the House. He must file a financial statement of income, naming persons who contribute $500 or more. He must list expenses, explainng all those over $10. And every three months these financial records will be exposed to the world in the Congressional Record.

The lobby system in Washington has been a headache to Congressmen and has permitted unfair advantage to organized, moneyed interests. Some of the lobbying has been of a useful, informational nature for just causes, but most of it has been the concentrated drive of special groups to attain or kill pending legislation which would affect them, regardless of the needs of the majority.

With the new lobby act, the whole business will be out in the open where everybody can know who is paying for the pressure work and what main techniques are being employed. Such records on past lobbying would provide interesting reading for the taxpayer and give a fairly clear idea of why some well-known proposed laws have never been passed.

RULING FAMILIES

The defeat of Senator Robert M. La Follette, Jr., in Wisconsin ends for the time being the rule of a family with few parallels in American history. From 1900, when the father was elected governor, to the present day, either he or one of his two sons was continually in office as governor or senator. Sometimes two La Folletes held office simultaneously.

Delaware long boasted of the Bayard and Saulsbury families, which for many generations, off and on, furnished United States senators. But a closer parallel is offered by the rule of the Cameron dynasty in Pennsylvania. Simon Cameron was senator at intervals from 1845 to 1877, when as master of the party machine he resigned and ordered the legislature to elect his son in his place. This was done, and for 20 years James Donald Cameron was senator, and for much of the time party boss.

The one radical difference between the La Follettes and the Camerons is that, while both were practical politicians, the La Follettes worked in the public interest and benefitted Wisconsin greatly. The Camerons were corrupt politicians whose reign is a dark chapter in Pennsylvania history.

Bob Hope recently bought stock in the Cleveland American League baseball team, and now Bing Crosby has become part owner of the Pittsburgh Nationals. If they should both open games by their own performances, they would soon get their money back.

LOST PROPHET

The death of H. G. Wells leaves Bernard Shaw reigning alone in the British literary circle. No other British author wields the authority of these two.

While Wells was a prolific and a competent novelist, with humor, good plot development and a sense of style, his novels will not be remembered for their characters. Their hold is in their extraordinary wealth of ideas. Wells was a major prophet who knew the inner meaning of his own time and envisioned the possibilities of the future. Radio broadcasting, airplanes and the atomic bomb were only a few of the inventions which he predicted.

Wells' books are full of scorn for profiteers and the many who have made money by putting obstacles in the way of the distribution of necessities. He hoped for a future state where all worked not for their own advantage alone, but for the common good. So hope we all.

'These Days'

By George E. Sokolsky

UNRRA

During and after World War 1, the United States entered upon the lofty enterprise of feeding the world. Beginning with Belgian Relief, passing through the period of the American Relief Administration, and terminating its services with the Russian Relief, the American people, through these agencies headed by Herbert Hoover, fed the needy, the hungry, particularly women and children. It was a magnificent act of human charity. Costs and politics were kept at a minimum. Love, mercy, kindness, for foe as well as friend, were the motivating forces.

In this war, we were presumably unable to be charitable.. The foe, even their litte babies, were damned because they refused to go to war. Politics were paramount. Early in the war, before the United States became a participant, a strong movement developed to feed the women and children, the innocents, foe as well as friend. This was rejected. At first the British, then the United States and Soviet Russia would have nothing to do with it. This was a total war in which the civilian was to be made to suffer even more than the fighter.

Not a small factor in this rejection of American charity was Mr. Roosevelt's strong personal dislike for Herbert Hoover, who was the leader of the movement to rescue the innocent. And the British and Russians disliked Mr. Hoover because he would not play their politics. Mr. Hoover sat in New York twiddling his thumbs while millions died of starvation—millions who could have been helped and might have been saved.

Ultimately UNRRA was organized as an international body to feed the hungry among the allied and liberated countries. Former Governor Herbert Lehman was placed in charge, but the personnel was not distinctively American and the organization did not represent the United States or the American people, in spite of the fact that this country contributed about 70 per cent of the funds directly and probably the whole amount indirectly. U.N.R.R.A. became one of those international bodies in which administration is torn to shreds by the nationalistic habits of its subordinate employers.

From the very beginning UNRRA was beset by the politics which have undermined UN and made of the Paris Peace Conference a shameful stalemate. It was always necessary to appease Soviet Russia. It seemed so important not to permit UNRRA to be wrecked on the rock of Soviet displeasure. Funds were poured into countries which the Russians were stripping economically. Food was sent into countries from which Russia was removing crops.

The United States contributed more than $2,900,000,000 to UNRRA directly and through loans and released funds which made it possible for the other contributors to provide their quotas. The probability is that the United States put up this entire sum or so large a part of it as to approximate the total.

Governor Lehman resigned as head of UNRRA due to ill-health, although he seems to be well enough to run for the Democratic nomination in New York State. Fiorello La Guardia was appointed to his place. "Butch" La Guardia has apparently lost his temper because the Red Army in Austria has been removing supplies that should have gone to the Austrian people. He has found crop land requisitioned and removed from the economy of the country. UNRRA in China, in Yugoslavia, in other countries has become involved in scandal.

And so UNRRA is to be disestablished and it is expected that much of its activities will be transferred to UN. But that seems to be both unwise and unnecessary. It is the American people who are providing this charity; let it be an American service to the world. What is really necessary is to establish an American Relief Administration, similar to that which functioned during and after World War 1. This body would be directed by Americans, utilizing American funds and playing no international politics.

It would be a service of charity of love of man for man, without appeasing anyone or injustice to anyone. It would be a work of the heart, not of policy. It should be a monument of American good-will to friend and foe.

THAT BODY OF YOURS

POSTURE AND ARTHRITIS

For years there has been a good natured controversy between orthopedic physicians of the United States and Great Britain as to cause and effect of posture. One believes that poor posture is caused by weakness or illness and the other believes that it is poor posture that causes the weakness or illness. Many physicians believe that they are both right in some cases.

In his book "Body Mechanics," Dr. J. E. Goldthwait, Boston, points out how poor posture can be a definite cause of arthritis or can greatly aggravate arthritis, and that the type or kind of arthritis depends to a great extent upon the build, whether it is slender or heavy.

In his book "Your Arthritis," Dr. Alfred E. Phelps states:

"Consider the slender individual with drooping shoulders, flattened chest (not really flat but drooping shoulders makes chest appear flat) poor expansion, exaggerated curve of upper back, weak sagging abdominal muscles, short intestines, dropped abdominal organs, and weak relaxed feet."

Naturally this slender stooped individual with poor expansion and poor digestion cannot fight arthritis or any other ailment or disease as well as if he stood erect. Because of this general weakness he aggravates his arthritis or other ailment.

Poor body mechanics or posture is not as common as in the heavy type of build, and the stout individual, because he has better general health, better appetite, and better digestion, puts up a better fight against disease. However, as weight increases, the weight of the abdomen pulls on the muscles of the small of back causing arthritis. In these cases a snug fitting abdominal belt helps while fat is being removed from abdomen by increasing the exercise and decreasing the food intake.

Remember, most cases of arthritis are not caused by faulty posture but by infection, too much starch food, emotional disturbances, cold and dampness. However, some cases are caused by faulty posture and many more are aggravated by poor posture.

So try to attain and maintain good posture by always standing and sitting erect.

Leaves From Boyle's Notebook

By IRENE ANGERSTEIN
(For Hal Boyle)

Berlin, Aug. 21 (AP)—The big men on the campus of what's left of battered Berlin University are not known for their football or soccer prowess, but by the political parties to which they belong.

Therein is the great contrast between Berlin University students and American collegians. The contrast between the university itself and American schools is the manner in which party politics infiltrates into every dusty corner of the German institution.

Attendance at the three-quarters damaged university brings to some 3,000 earnest German students not only the lessons taught in books, but those which are learned in the rough and tumble politics of present-day Germany.

At Berlin University there is no joyful fraternity life; no chatting groups of gay girls and sharp blades between classes; nothing at all of the light side of scholastic life.

"Sororities? What are they?" asked a young co-ed in faded blue overalls who was pushing a heavy wheel barrow full of rubble. She was just completing her 86th hour helping to remove debris from the school grounds; she had 114 hours to go.

The most fortunate students have their own books; other lucky ones have been able to bribe the toothless old 'librarian' who guards the blackened 50,000 volumes stacked haphazardly in a damp, low ceilinged cellar; the unlucky have only their classroom lecture notes.

More than half the students are freshmen, the average student is 25 years old; all of them have 12 years of isolation from the rest of the world to make up.

No part of the population observes political developments with more vigilance than these students. To them the present public emphasis of the 'new democracy' is just so much window dressing.

"In reality," said one intense student in speaking of the older generation, "they are still the same unteachable, one-sided, hypocritical bunch they have been for the past 12 years."

"Teach us all systems, not just one, and let us judge through our knowledge," they beg their professor, although with little hope. As one student put it: "Our present teachers are such lousy pedagogues they never had to join the party because the Nazis never considered them worthy to hold teaching jobs."

The students concede they are too serious, but they remind you that they live in serious times. "Dancing is fine for young people who feel secure in the future; we do not," they add.

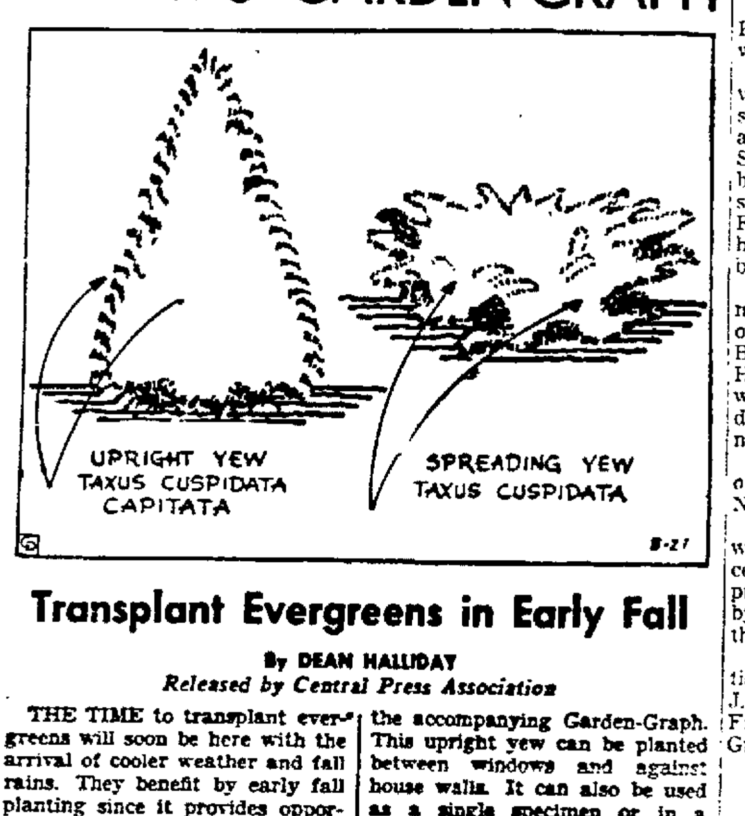
The Russians have demonstrated the importance they attribute to the university by assigning a Red army captain to deliver lectures. Students agree in general that the lectures are "interesting and objective" and presented in an engaging manner designed to win friends and influence people.

The students do not desire to be influenced yet, many look with pessimism on the future. "We know that if you preach one doctrine long enough to us, eventually we will embrace it," said one.

Swedish Cows Improve

Sweden's biggest agricultural fair, held recently at Stockholm, with 200 dairies taking part, developed the fact that the meat weight per cow of Swedish cattle has increased 23 per cent in the last 75 years. In 1945, cows averaged 7,930 pounds of milk, with fat content of 3.82 per cent.

TODAY'S GARDEN-GRAPH



Transplant Evergreens in Early Fall

By DEAN HALLIDAY
Released by Central Press Association

THE TIME to transplant evergreens will soon be here with the arrival of cooler weather and fall rains. They benefit by early fall planting since it provides opportunity for growth of new feeding roots to supply the moisture that is required during the winter months.

For use in the small garden or in restricted areas, the Japanese yews are perhaps the most valuable and important of all the evergreens. They can be planted beneath windows on each side of the front door, or among the perennials in the garden.

The upright Japanese yew, Taxus cuspidata capitata, is columnar in form and will eventually reach a considerable height, if not kept trimmed back. Its upright shape is illustrated in the accompanying Garden-Graph. This upright yew can be planted between windows and against house walls. It can also be used as a single specimen or in a hedge.

For low plantings the Taxus cuspidata is useful. It forms a spreading mass, as illustrated. Like all yews, however, it withstands hard shearing and may be maintained at any desired width or height. It is an ideal plant for the low, evergreen hedge.

The yews are valuable for their very deep green, almost black foliage. This foliage is dense, giving the plant an unusually rich effect. The scarlet fruits, which look somewhat like fleshy cranberries, are extremely decorative especially in contrast to their dark foliage.

"At Century's Turn"

By H. L. VAN DEUSEN

The city water board at its meeting held on June 2, 1932, by a strict party vote of three Democrats to two Republicans, ousted Superintendent Henry D. Darrow and installed Police Commissioner William D. Cashin in his place.

When Superintendent Cashin assumed his new duties he immediately filed with Mayor Eugene B. Carey his resignation as a member of the police board.

Mr. Cashin held the office of superintendent of the water board for a few years, and when the Republicans again regained control of the board, Mr. Darrow was reinstated and held the post of superintendent until his death.

Three men who were prominent for a number of years in the life of Kingston died in June, 1932. They were Captain Everett Fowler, Conrad E. Hasbrouck and Morris Schlesinger.

Captain Fowler died in his office in New York city on June 6, of that year, aged 61 years. For years he was active in the civic, political and military life of the city.

He graduated from Union College in 1885, and in 1887 passed his examination as a member of the bar, and became a lawyer. For seven years he held the post of captain of old Company M of this city, and during World War 1 was a member of the Home Defense Committee.

Long active in local Democratic circles he, for some years, served as Democratic leader of Ulster county. In 1910 he was appointed State Fire Marshal, a post he held for two years.

Captain Fowler during a long and busy life in Kingston also served as a member of the Board of Fire Commissioners, and was a director of the National Ulster County Bank and Trust Co., and a trustee of the Kingston Savings Bank.

Deeply interested in volunteer firemanic affairs he was a past president of Wiltwyck Hose Co.

Fraternally he was a member of Kingston Lodge of Masons, and was also a member of the Shrine.

Conrad E. Hasbrouck of Stuyvesant street died on June 3, after spending more than 35 years as a retail hardware merchant on the Strand. Following his death the business was purchased and has since been conducted by Eugene Fowler, who for a number of years had been employed by Mr. Hasbrouck at the hardware store.

Morris Schlesinger was the last man to serve as manager of the old American Cigar factory on Broadway, at Pine Grove avenue. He held the post for 23 years, and when the factory finally closed its doors he retired from active business.

He died on June 1, in the home of his son, Jesse Schlesinger, in New York, aged 67 years.

The new Grange Hall at Lloyd was dedicated with appropriate ceremonies on June 2, 1932, with principal address being delivered by Senator Arthur H. Wicks of this city.

Others who spoke at the dedication were Congressman Harcourt J. Pratt of Highland, and Fred J. Freestone, master of the Highland Grange.

Brides Favor "Because"

A church survey in Belfast showed that Northern Ireland people's preference as a wedding solo is "Because," made famous by Richard Tauber. "I'll Walk Beside You" and "The Prayer Perfect" are other favorites and brides often select "Be Thou My Vision."

Military Attitude Towards Situation in Yugoslavia Indicates Serious International Crisis Is Brewing

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, Aug. 21—When a division of American troops goes on parade in the occupied zone adjacent to Yugoslavia and two top-ranking admirals—one of them America's best aircraft task force commander—fly to Europe for a "naval inspection" trip, there would normally not be the slightest significance to the episode. But when it comes immediately after fighter planes of the Yugoslavian government have repeatedly fired on American transport planes, it can be presumed that a crisis of serious international proportions is in the making.

President Truman was planning to go north along the Atlantic coast on his yacht, but now he has turned southward toward Washington. Presumably he will return immediately to the national capital from some near-by port if matters grow worse in Europe.

The text of the American note of protest to Yugoslavia makes public to all the world that Yugoslavia has fired on the planes of a friendly country. The demand now is for assurances that American planes will not again be attacked. The latest note significantly says that the United States "fully reserves its position in matter of claims for compensation."

This means that reparation may be demanded later in the event that a satisfactory reply is not soon received and should there be further attacks. The American government, meanwhile, is puzzled by the Yugoslavian attitude. Is Marshal Tito trying to provoke the United States and so vex our representatives in Paris that they will accede to his demands with respect to Trieste? Do the Yugoslavian authorities, sponsored as they are by the Russians, believe that this is one way to test out American intentions in Europe?

Anyway, if there is any question about America's decision to back up her diplomacy, it will be cleared up by what is about to happen in the Mediterranean. The parade of the 88th Division was only one manifestation of American concern.

There are now in the Mediterranean nine American warships of major size. These include the giant 45,000-ton Aircraft Carrier Roosevelt, three cruisers and five destroyers. Admiral Marc Mitscher, who won his laurels in the war against Japan, doubtless will be placed in command of the task force. Fighter planes from the carrier could be launched in the Mediterranean for patrol or for "parade" purposes.

It is not known what naval forces the British have in the Mediterranean, but it is believed here that reports earlier of joint maneuvers with American naval forces may have been in some way linked to preparations for a naval demonstration of British-American warships.

Unfortunately the United Nations is not set up as yet on the military or naval side, so the breach of the peace of which Yugoslavia has been guilty in her attack on the planes of a friendly nation cannot be handled by the Security Council. But even if each nation were ready to furnish the necessary forces, there is no certainty that any action could be commanded, because Russia has a veto in the Security Council and it is likely that, judging by her past record, her course would be one of procrastination rather than enforcement of discipline.

For all practical purposes, America and Britain are the ones to enforce peace in Europe. The attacks on American planes are related to the problems of occupation, because it is only to carry out the terms of the armistice by which Yugoslavia and other nations were liberated from the Nazi yoke that American forces are stationed in Europe today.

Yugoslavia is under the thumb of Russia, but she could easily alienate American friendship and economic help for a long time to come by her short-sighted course. The injury done American airmen is aggravated by the high-handed behavior of the Belgrade officials in refusing to allow the passengers on a transport plane forced down in Yugoslavia to be seen by official consular representatives until after protest was made. Likewise, the detention of the airmen is a sign that Yugoslavia is not a free agent herself but is awaiting orders from Moscow, where the governmental machinery works with cumbersome slowness.

There is unquestionably a connection between what is happening in the Paris Conference and the aggressive behavior of Yugoslavia. The United States government is not planning to hush up the affair but is making its notes public at once and is not trying to keep secret what it is doing in the way of a military and naval demonstration. Sometimes major crises develop that way.

Washington, Aug. 20—Tension increases rather than diminishes throughout the world. Peace has been made in a practical sense with former enemy countries—Germany, Italy and Japan—but peace has not been made between the Allies.

Thus, Yugoslavia is supposed to be a country friendly to the United States but her airmen fire on American planes. Time was when the United States did more than send notes of protest when the flag of this country was fired upon. When Japan fired on the U.S.S. Panay in 1937, demands for reparation and apology were made.

The American ambassador to Belgrade, Richard C. Patterson, describes the attack on our airplane as "wicked, inexcusable and deliberate." This is strong language and, in the face of it, the American government cannot afford to let the incident pass with a single protest.

Maybe our government is doing more about the situation in the whole Mediterranean area than appears on the surface. A portion of the American fleet has been sent from the Atlantic, presumably on a good-will cruise through Mediterranean waters. But the task force might also have been sent to indicate that the United States is not disposed to withdraw from Europe.

Yugoslavia is Russia's ally. When Yugoslavia acts up, it is assumed here that her puppet government has received instructions from somewhere in the vicinity of Moscow. More incidents flouting the United States may be expected in Europe. It is one way the Russian bloc may have devised to irritate the United States into withdrawing from Europe. The effect, however, will be the exact opposite.

America's prestige and voice in making the peace has been seriously weakened by the withdrawal of American troops and sea forces from Europe. The demands of Congress for the ending of the draft and the pressure to bring the veterans back home have made it difficult for American diplomacy to be as effective as would be the case if a sizable American army remained in Europe.

It is primarily a large American air force that ought to be trained for European patrol. If the Yugoslavs are shooting down American planes, then all American planes should be escorted by fighter planes of our own. This is not a means of provoking war but of preventing it.

The other day, just before President Truman left for his vacation trip, an important conference was held at the White House. It consisted of the highest officers of the Army, Navy and Air Forces and of the Department of State. Such a conference could hardly be a routine affair. It is one of the few conferences of this kind held since V-J Day. It could mean that the deploying of our military, naval and aerial forces in strategic parts of the globe as a means of backing up our diplomatic policy was under consideration.

Some few weeks ago, when the battleship Missouri was sent to the Mediterranean, officials here said that such voyages must not occasion surprise and that the American Navy must feel free to go anywhere in the world these days.

Unfortunately, the United Nations has not organized its military forces. The preservation of peace is still a matter for the United States and Great Britain when it comes to air power and sea power. Russia primarily has land power. The best method of patrolling troublesome land areas will be by air power, and adjacent waters will be best protected by sea power, especially aircraft carriers, which can furnish mobile bases.

It is not believed here that a third world war is imminent but that troubles requiring a show of force may recur from time to time in the next few years. Most important of all is a demonstration by the United States that it is not going to be driven back to isolationism by vexatious quarrels with Russia. The more the United States indicates that she did not open up a second front in 1944 and save the Soviets from being crushed by Hitler only to permit Russia's totalitarian government to threaten the peace of Europe, the more likely is Russia to be impressed.

Redeployment

(By The Associated Press)

Two vessels, carrying 424 troops and army patients, are due to dock at San Francisco in the only redeployment movements scheduled today.

They are: The army hospital ship Comfort from Manila, Kobe, Okinawa and Yokohama with 414 patients, and the Hillsdale Victory with 10 troops.

Dentist Saves Face

Father Peter Reilly, a Maryknoll Missioner in Wuchow, China, walked into a dentist's office suffering from toothache. "Pull it!" he told the man. After a half hour's painful labor, the tooth still was intact, when another Chinese came in and took over. "Who are you?" asked Father Reilly. "I'm the dentist," was the reply. "That other fellow only watches the office for me when I go out."

Twenty and Ten Years Ago

August 21, 1926—One case of infantile paralysis in city reported to Board of Health. It was the first city case to be reported in more than a year.

Mrs. Leola M. Feldman of Eddyville, badly hurt when knocked down by a truck.

Parker Davis and Miss Hester T. Loftus married.

August 21, 1936—Jay E. Klock, editor and publisher of The Freeman, died. He was one of the best known newspaper men in the state.

Henry Judson Carney, the five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Moses Carney of Klingburg avenue, killed when struck by a truck on the Boulevard.

Clarence Van Vlierden Plank and Miss Runa Patterson married.

City Devotion

The supreme devotion of a citizen of ancient Greece was to his city, and not to Greece as a whole. The laws he obeyed were those of his city, and the city alone was entitled to ask him to give his life for it.

Local Death Record

The funeral will be held from his late home No. 20 Franklin street on Friday afternoon at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends are invited to attend. The burial will take place in Montrepose cemetery.

No Time to Pussyfoot Senator Bridges Says

Boston, Aug. 21 (AP)—Sen. Styles Bridges (R-N.H.) declared today that "the United States should not hesitate to use military force against the Tito government of Jugoslavia."

The senator, who yesterday criticized what he called "wanton attacks" on American planes over Yugoslavia, said in an interview: "This is no time to pussyfoot or for writing sharp notes. It's time for action, action that Tito and Stalin, his master, understand."

Bridges described the Yugoslav government as "a Red puppet dancing to Joe Stalin's tune."

DIED

CHRISTANA—At Rifton, N. Y., August 21, 1946, Jacob D. Christana, husband of Effie L. Christana, father of Mrs. Herbert Bedell, and Clifford J. Christana, son of Mrs. Anna Christana, brother of Mrs. Earl Quick.

Funeral services will be held from his late home, Rifton, N. Y., Saturday, August 24, 1946 at 2:30 p. m. Interment in the Rosendale Plains Cemetery, Tillson, N. Y.

New York City Produce Market

New York, Aug. 21 (AP)—(State Dept. of Agr. and Markets)—The demand was light for most vegetables today and supplies were more than sufficient for trade needs. Very few buyers were present on the market, and prices were generally off on most items. Snap beans, cauliflower, corn, lettuce, and tomatoes were lower. Potatoes remained about steady. Market dull and weak.

Apple quality improved very slightly and prices declined generally for those receipts. A few fancy apples were sold at better prices. Cherries were slightly weaker. Pears sold slowly with prices lower. Market weak.

Apples—Hudson valley, bu. bskt. McIntosh, 2½ in. 1.50-2.75, un- and eastern boxes, no grade mark, classified 75. Wolf River, 2¾ in. 1.75-2.00. Duchess, 2½ in. 1.00-1.25. Man, 75, Uses Firing Range as His Home

Fort Lewis, Wash., Aug. 21 (AP)—John Parsons, the 75-year-old will-o-the-wisp recluse, has gone and eluded the army again.

An amazed army officer could hardly believe his eyes a few days ago when he found Parsons living in his ramshackle, thicket-hidden home in the Fort Lewis firing range, where artillery shells and land mines had roared an intermittent din for three years.

Two broken-down horses were in the rickety barn.

"But you can't," expostulated Lt. Howard Frederick, military fire warden who was making a rare inspection of the vast port area. "This is the very center of an impact area. It has been government property since 1943."

Parsons "allowed as how" he knew about that. The government bought it from him for $709. It had been noisy "but no one came and moved me away, so I just stayed on."

Shell holes pock-marked the whole area, but the home site, in a wooded, saucer-like depression, had escaped.

An army truck went to move the old man yesterday, but a man who could take care of himself through three years of artillery fire didn't need any help. He was gone when the truck pulled up to the doorless, windowless log cabin. So were the horses.

Dairymen's League Will Discuss Prices

New York, Aug. 21 (AP)—The Dairymen's League Cooperative Association today announced it had called a meeting of representatives of 75 producer groups in the New York milkshed at Syracuse Friday, August 23, to work out a plan which voluntary milk prices now in effect might be incorporated in state and federal milk marketing orders.

H. H. Rathbun, league president, announced the meeting and commended the Price Decontrol Board for "recognizing in its decision the fair position of the dairy industry during the period of decontrol."

Ulster County Fair Draws Thousands

hand this morning to assist the local police force in handling traffic, and traffic arrangements were excellent.

The women and girls who attended the fair took great interest in the homemaking displays, which showed not only all kinds of cakes and cookies, but many articles for the home such as rugs and other furnishings.

How to Decorate Home

One booth that interested many was that showing how the home could be decorated in various colors, together with the arrangement of the furnishings as well as the colors to use on walls, floors and ceilings.

A small model of a house, built of cardboard, was used in this exhibit.

This display was in charge of girls of the 4-H Clubs.

The boys and girls also showed that they found time for hobbies in addition to their farm and school work, and there was one booth devoted exclusively to an exhibit of various hobbies such as stamp collections and postcards as well as other articles.

Farm and Saddle Horses

The fair this year featured a large showing of farm and saddle horses. The work teams exhibited were some of the finest ever seen in the judging ring at the fair.

Most of the teams were exhibited by their owners who drove the farm wagons to which they were hitched.

It has been years since a finer showing of farm horses, animals who work daily on the farm, has been seen at the county fair.

Saddle horses were also shown, and the judges found it difficult to select the winners.

Refreshment Stand

In addition to the various exhibition booths there was a large refreshment stand on the grounds, where the hungry visitor could enjoy hot dogs and all kinds of soft drinks.

Homemade Cakes

It was in front of the large display of homemade cakes and cookies that the hungry visitor lingered longest, but only the judges had the opportunity of enjoying a nibble from each delicious exhibit.

Not only were there cakes and cookies baked by adults, but there was an extensive display of various kinds of cookies baked by the girls of the 4-H Clubs of the county.

Everybody Happy

Everybody at the fair today appeared in a happy mood, and groups, who had not seen each other since the last fair, assembled and swapped experiences, and compared the various exhibits.

This year the layout of the exhibition tents and booths was greatly improved over previous fairs, and the spacious park afforded plenty of room to spread the exhibits out over a larger space so that one would have the opportunity of viewing them without undue crowding.

Fine Display of Fowls

The display of fowls this year was one of the largest and best in years. All varieties were shown, including the ever popular white Leghorns and the Plymouth Rocks.

One display that attracted attention was a bantam hen and her brood of five chicks.

Not only were the various breeds of chickens shown but there was also an extensive showing of eggs, both white and brown.

In the 4-H Club tent two boys from Lake Katrine gave an exhibition of how eggs are graded for the market.

Thousands of Exhibits

There were literally thousands of exhibits this year at the fair, and all came in for their share of attention.

In order to facilitate the judging of the vast number of entries the judges began the work of selecting the winners shortly after 10 o'clock.

Threaten Reprisals if Executions Are Made

Jerusalem, Aug. 21 (AP)—Stern gang leaflets posted on Tel Aviv walls last night threatened reprisals to Palestine government officials, all police personnel and to members of the British armed forces if 18 young Jews sentenced to death by a Haifa military court are executed.

The leaflets, addressing the sentenced comrades, declared "in case you should hang you may be assured none of your hangmen will survive you."

The 18 were sentenced last Friday after being captured in an armed raid on British installations.

Arab leaders said informally today that the British decision to take the Palestine question to the United Nations meant the United Kingdom "finally recognizes the illegality of her mandate."

The Arabs declined a formal statement immediately.

Political Kiss of Death, Says Fish

New York, Aug. 21 (AP)—Former Representative Hamilton Fish said today that political support by James Roosevelt, son of the late President, of Augustus Bennet in the 29th Congressional District primary had "turned out to be a political kiss of death" in his defeat by Mrs. Katharine Price Collier St. George.

Fish, in a statement telephoned to New York newspapers concerning Mrs. St. George's victory in the heavily Republican 29th Congressional District, declared:

"James Roosevelt, eldest son of the late president, injected himself and his New Deal views into the primary campaign for Congressman in Orange county, N. Y., by endorsing his father's New Deal protege, Augustus Bennet, against his cousin, Mrs. Katharine St. George. It turned out to be a political kiss of death."

"The Republicans of the 29th Congressional District * * * want no political advice from any New Deal member of the Roosevelt family, and particularly James Roosevelt who is on the P.A.C. or associate payroll. He is merely a puppet who reacts to the guiding strings of P.A.C."

Shot at U. S. Weapons Designer Still Mystery

Washington, Aug. 21 (AP)—A still unsolved war mystery of an unexplained shot which was fired in the Pentagon building, and which just missed the army's top designer of secret weapons was disclosed today by War Department officials.

They reported that Maj. Gen. Gladeon M. Barnes, then chief of the Ordnance Department's Technical Division, by a chance movement was saved from a bullet which plowed through the window of his fourth floor office. The incident occurred in the summer of 1942.

It was established the bullet came from a nine-millimeter German Luger pistol. But that is as far as the investigation got. The question remains whether Barnes, credited with developing the block buster bomb and other war weapons, was the target of a spy or whether the shot was fired accidentally by someone handling a war trophy.

Financial and Commercial

New York, Aug. 21 (AP)—Selected stocks resumed their recovery jog today although many market leaders continued to falter.

Share trends, brokers said, apparently were unaffected to any great extent by the Price Decontrol Board decisions. Another batch of favorable dividends and earnings—there were exceptions here—bolstered sentimen but failed to stimulate a buying rush. Strikes, both actual and threatened, together with some apprehension over foreign affairs, put brakes on bidding.

Bonds were narrow and commodities uneven.

Meat Ceiling Sept. 3

Washington, Aug. 21 (AP)—Price ceilings on meat, ordered re-established by the Decontrol Board, probably will go into effect at retail stores about September 3, an O.P.A. official said today. This tentative arrangement, subject to approval by the Agriculture Department, will put back retail ceiling on meats 12 days later than O.P.A. previously had planned.

May Loosen Trade Law

Nuernberg, Germany, Aug. 21 (AP)—Atty. Gen. Tom Clark of the United States said today that American authorities were considering relaxing regulations against trading with Germany in order to increase the occupied country's ability to survive without help.

Agree on Handling Straying Individuals

Berlin, Aug. 21 (AP)—A code of conduct for interzone handling of straying individuals and espionage suspects was established today in a gentlemen's agreement between commanders of the United States and Russian occupation zones of Germany.

Gen. Joseph T. McNarney, the American commander, said the first action under the new code was to be the return to the Soviet zone today of a Russian woman N.K.V.D. (secret police) agent caught operating as an U.N.R.R.A. employe in American-occupied territory.

A list of her espionage activities will go with her, he said.

McNarney said he made the agreement orally with his Russian counterpart, Marshal Vassily Sokolowsky, to apply equally to American and Russian "individuals." Nothing so impolite as the word "spy" was mentioned. McNarney's agreement ran as follows:

"If an unauthorized Russian individual comes into the American zone he shall be arrested. If an authorized individual comes into the zone and misbehaves he also shall be arrested.

"It is agreed that these individuals shall be arrested and the Red army commander informed within 24 hours—or at the most 48 hours. Furthermore, within one week the individual shall be returned to his respective zone commander with a full bill of particulars of his actions."

The pact applies similarly to Americans in the Russian zone.

Distiller Marries Actress At Reno Baptist Church

Reno, Nev., Aug. 21 (AP)—Theodore C. Wiehe, vice president of the Schenley Distilling Company, and Mrs. Gertrude E. Rich, a former New York actress, were man and wife today after a marriage ceremony at the First Baptist Church here yesterday. Both Wiehe and his bride, who divorced previous mates after 39 and 23 years of marriage respectively, listed their ages as "over 21" and gave their addresses as Crystal Bay, Nev.

Wiehe's former wife, Mrs. May B. Wiehe of New York city, was reported to have received a cash and stock settlement totaling more than $1,000,000.

Special Agent

New York, Aug. 21—The Federal Bureau of Investigation announced today that Edward Scheidt, 43-year-old former administrative assistant to F.B.I. Chief J. Edgar Hoover, had been designated as special agent in charge of the bureau's New York city office. He replaces E. E. Conry, who has been placed on indefinite leave of absence due to recurrence of an ailment contracted during World War I, the F.B.I. said. For the past nine years Scheidt has been special agent in charge of the F.B.I.'s Charlotte, N. C., office. He is a native of St. Paul, Minn.

British Praise Note

Paris, Aug. 21 (AP)—British circles at the Paris Peace Conference praised today what they described as the "strength" of the American nate to Moscow on the Dardanelles. These sources indicated that in the present dispute Britain would much prefer to "take a back seat" and let the United States spearhead opposition to the Russian demands. French conference circles indicated their position was similar to Britain's.

Cohen Cuts U.N.R.R.A. Personnel in Germany

Frankfurt, Germany, Aug. 21 (AP) — Meyer Cohen, Newly appointed acting U.N.R.R.A. director for Germany, reduced U.N.R.R.A. personnel handling the hundreds of thosands of displaced persons in his first official action today.

Cohen announced he was "consolidating the displaced persons operation" and officials in his headquarters at Arolsen said:

"This means U.N.R.R.A. will cut out unnecessary function as a step looking forward to the time when U.N.R.R.A. ends."

Cohen took over his duties this morning from British Lt. Gen. Sir Frederick Morgan, who was "released" yesterday.

A spokesman said that Morgan would "probably return to England early next week."

He had noticed for some time that when the bottles of wine were brought in, they were not quite as full as they ought to have been and accordingly he requested the butler to do all the opening in his presence.

Baronet (sternly)—I notice that when you draw the corks in the pantry the wine is exceedingly decollete.

Butler (looking surprised)—Extremely decollete, sir?

Baronet (more sternly still)—Yes'm, rather low in the neck.

Dublin Bombed in Error

How Britain's Royal Air Force once was able to divert a German air raid planned for Belfast, Northern Ireland, to Dublin, in neutral Eire, by interference with the Germans' navigation beam, recently was made known at a radar demonstration in Belfast. It was not stated that the diversion to Dublin in particular was intentional—the aim was merely to divert the raid away from Belfast. It caused 37 deaths in Dublin. Eire protested to Berlin which admitted responsibility and said high winds were responsible for the error.

Baptism Threatened

A party of clergymen were attending a Presbyterian conference in Scotland, Glasgow reports, when several, who had set out to explore the district, came to a river spanned by a temporary bridge. They started to cross, when the bridge-keeper ran after them in protest. "It's all right," said one clergyman, not understanding the reason for the haste. "We're Presbyterians from the conference." "I'm no caring aboot that," said the bridgekeeper, "but if you dinna get off that bridge ye'll all be Baptists."

City League All-Stars Clash With Recs Tonight at Stadium; K.A.A. Favors September 3 for Brooklyn All-Star Game Here

Officials Expect Great Throng to Jam Uptown Park

Neff Is Likely Starting Hurler to Face Manager Hoffman's Club; Game Starts at 9 P.M.

The long-awaited baseball game between the City League All-Stars and the Kingston Recreations will finally come off tonight at municipal stadium under the big arc-lights starting at 9 o'clock.

Interest in the affair has been at a high pitch ever since first mention of the proposed tilt was made sometime ago. Officials of both the Recs and City League anticipate an overflow turnout and all fans are urged to reach the stadium early for choice unreserved seats.

Warren Smith, president of the City League, who has been an arch supporter of tonight's contest, dropped in at The Freeman office this morning and voiced his expectations of a hard fought game.

"Our All-Stars have a good bunch of ball players who are anxious to show their wares to the Recreation baseball committee. They've all been doing their best in a few workouts so far and I'm confident that they can give Manager Hoffman's team a good battle."

The city loop proxy added that the league team is going into the game strictly for the long-awaited chance to show that they can play good baseball and with the hope that they'll all be given a chance to play for the Reds in 1947.

Stars Hold Workout

With Manager Murphy looking on, the All-Stars held their final pre-game drill at the stadium last night and once again every member of the select squad carried on with the drill until darkness. "I'm still very impressed with the boys," Manager Murphy said. "They have the spirit which makes for winning ball clubs."

Neff May Pitch

Charlie Neff, the ace Stone Ridge fireballer, appeared at the practice last night and gave his trusty right arm a thorough inspection and after the drill Manager Murphy indicated that he might start Neff. "We have three good hurlers [illegible] throw at the Recreations," Ed exclaimed, "and I feel as though either one of them can hold their own." Others set for starting assignments outside of Neff are Tommy Fisher and Bob Bush.

Although there may be some last minute changes before game time Manager Murphy said last night that he expects to open with Al Vogt, first; Buddy Hughes, second; Charlie Francello, third, and Tommy Carlino at short. The All-Star outfield will have Jess Shultis, Link Crosby and Bob "Red" Gorsline, who recently signed a Brooklyn Dodger contract. Ray Lindhurst will do the backstopping for either Neff, Fisher or Bush.

"This lineup is full of young players," Manager Murphy said. "They've all been out to practice with us and have given their best. It should be a good ball game tonight."

Tonight's battle for the Recreations will be their first since their easy 15 to 0 victory over the hapless Puerto Rican Stars. Last week's scheduled tilt with the Sydney Cardinals was called off due to rain.

Following tonight's clash the Recreations will appear at the stadium Saturday night in a benefit contest against the New York Police team.

Manager Hoffman told The Freeman last night that he has acquired Bill Thomas for duty with the club tonight. Thomas played in the City League this year after a long layoff and appeared to show plenty of his old form.

Tonight's tentative starting line-ups:

LUGGAGE
ALL KINDS

In the Rough

By Charlie Tiano

Frank W. Thompson's hole-in-one, the fifth reported in Kingston for the season, emphasizes the wide discrepancy between percentages involved in a golf ace and a perfect "300" in bowling. . . . Five perfect games in bowling in one season would be nothing short of phenomenal. . . . Come to think of it, five holes-in-one in a town thesize of Kingston is pretty phenomenal, too.

CHIP SHOTS—We don't know how Mr. Thompson or the other acers celebrated, but Tommy Danaher relates about the Scotch custom of celebrating a hole-in-one. . . . The lucky one must first buy a bottle of Scotch for his caddy. . . . Then he stations himself at the clubhouse bar and buys a drink for every man who walks through the doors that day. . . . Quite a trick for a "real" Scotchman, says Tom.

THE NINETEENTH HOLE—is where some golfers make fishermen seem like pikers. . . . The Wiltwyck-Twaalfskill inter-club opener Sunday is expected to attract 40-man squads. . . . Ed Tongue and your agent will line up the pairings. . . . Hmm, lets see! The top four men in each club definitely will go against each other. . . . Then we figure Tommy Danaher and Dick Danaher, the golfing brothers, can go against Walt Thiel and Frank Ball. . . . This match should be an interesting feature for the spectators, even though Ball and Thiel figure to win from here to there. . . .

A great crisis threatens to hobble our infant golfing career. . . . As a member of both Wiltwyck and Twaalfskill, we're eligible for both teams. . . . Walt Thiel and Frank Ball are trying to palm us off to Tom Danaher, and the latter says Ball and Thiel can have us with his complete blessings. . . . The solution is simple. . . . We'll play with the home club each time. . . . How can the pros laugh off that one!

BASEBALL—Invariably it apears in this column. . . . But we're happy to see that Poughkeepsie and Kingston have settled their differences. . . . If the representative players of the City League are not in the all-star lineup tonight, it will be a sad blow to the prestige of the contest. . . . We see where Kingston's No. 1 rooter, Charlie Brodhead, middle initial C., crashed the Daily News verce of the peepul. . . . Said the sage Brodhead: "Babe Ruth meant everything to baseball, and I think there's a screw loose somewhere if the Babe can't be brought back to the game in some capacity. He deserves it." Correct, Chas.

AMONG OTHER THINGS—We consider Walter Williams of Williams Lake the finest non-professional publicist in the area. . . . Walt turns in neat copy, devoid of hysterics and gooey adjectives. . . . John Van Gonsic, who won the Wiltwyck golf title last year, will not defend it, for the obvious reason that he is not a Wiltwyck member this year. . . . Carl Husta tinkering with faulty sparkplugs on his jalopy and wondering what happened to all the action that was going to take place. . . . Office girls at a midtown establishment are booming a match between "Link" Fisher and Bill Schaffrick for the back room championship. . . . Mary Tiano will caddy for Schaffrick, with Joan Weber carrying the clubs for Fisher. . . . Office insiders say this is truly the Armageddon of golf. . . . George Flemmings, Jr., can drive with the best of them. . . . He swings in a stylish groove and figures to be a real seige gun when he harnesses his power. . . . We understand the local Patti may be induced to reconsider her retirement plans to play that match, after all. . . . Armand Farina, popular ENYGA performer of Schenectady, shot 70 in the opening qualifying round of the P.G.A. . . . Joseph Zarhardt, of Norristown, Pa., who was six under par in the Woodstock Open, shot 75. . . . Have you signed with the Kingston Athletic Association. . . . Only a dollar. . . . We predict it will be the finest sports organization in the history of the town. . . . Get on the bandwagon. . . .

Wiltwyck Revives 'Golf Carnival'; Slated Thursday

Events Will Be Staged Under Floodlights; Mixed Foursome Also Listed on Program

A "Golf Carnival" a novel idea introduced with great popularity by Tommy Danaher, Wiltwyck Golf Club pro before the war, will be revived Thursday night at the uptown course, following a 9-hole mixed foursome.

Unique in this area the "Golf Carnival" will be staged under the floodlights on the No. 9 green and along the No. 9 fairway from the clubhouse.

Events include a driving contest for distance, a contest for putting and approach shooting. Special prizes will be awarded all winners. The competition is open to members of Wiltwyck Club.

The mixed-foursome competition is scheduled to get under way at 5 o'clock, with foursomes teeing off between 5 and 5:30.

Considerable interest has been aroused for the event and Danaher feels popularity will match the pre-war enthusiasm for such features.

On the more serious side, the Wiltwyck pro announces that all Wiltwyck members desiring to compete in the club championships are requested to begin qualifying play as soon as possible. All players must be qualified by Saturday, August 31.

The 1946 competition will determine a successor to the club champion. John Van Gonsic, who will not defend his title.

St. Mary's and St. Peter's Play Loop Game Thursday

St. Mary's and St. Peter's will hook up in an important Catholic Athletic Association softball game Thursday night at Hasbrouck Park.

Players of both clubs are asked to be on the field no later than 6 o'clock. The game is scheduled to start at 6:30 o'clock.

Hasbrouck Takes Park Loop Title; Beats Loughran

Stan Janeczek Is Winner on Four-Hitter; Brown and Steltz Spark Champs at Plate

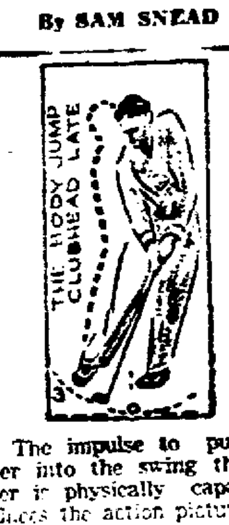
Behind the four-hit pitching of Stan Janeczek and the timely hitting of Dan Brown and Ken Steltz, Hasbrouck Park defeated Loughran Park this week and clinched the Senior Park baseball championship for 1946. The winners have won every game this year. Loughran finished second with only one setback. The final score was 3-2.

Janeszek was in trouble most of the way but always managed to squeeze through. The Hasbrouck finger got out of a big jam in the final frame with the tying and winning run on first and second. Ken Lowe came to the plate and with a 3-2 count on him, banged one to third which Rienzo scooped up and threw to first for the final out.

Janeczek and Kitsos worked all the way for Hasbrouck while Lessick and Glaser formed the Loughran battery.

Better Golf

By SAM SNEAD



3. The impulse to put more power into the swing than the golfer is physically capable of, produces the action pictured here. This body thrust destroys all the carefully built-up mechanics of golf swing. And it is the fault of the player who swings for power at the expense of rhythm. A forward body thrust like that pictured, puts the hands far ahead of the clubhead, producing the slice and cancelling the forces of a rhythmic swing, for in thepivot, the downswing of the arms and last, but by no means, least, the throw of the hands, are all upset by this forward body thrust or jump. The player using this body thrust cannot expend the foregoing forces on the ball, because he cannot bring them to bear, in unison at impact. Thus, his muscular forces are dissipated at different points in the swing instead of being united in a single force when clubface meets ball.

Ticket Sales Presage Capacity Crowd for Thursday's Fights

Match Between Decker and Virgilio Highlights Big Show at Local Auditorium Arena

The long-awaited match between Carmine Virgilio, rough and ready bantamweight from Poughkeepsie and George "Babyface" Decker, Schenectady master boxer, will go on in the municipal auditorium, Thursday night.

Decker won a decision over Virgilio on June 28, getting the nod from the officials after a display of clever boxing during which the Poughkeepsie ring gladiator roughed it up. The fans took it out on Carmine with a loud chorus of boos, but he fought his way back into their favor by defeating the clever Jackie Thompson later in a five rounder. Decker lost a decision to Thompson on June 13.

Ticket sales indicate a capacity house for the re-match, which promises plenty of action at the auditorium, where the show sponsored by B'nai B'rith will go on rain or shine.

Co-featured with Decker and Virgilio are Tony Burrone, best welterweight in the Adirondack A.A.U. and Joe Frasca, 145-pounder from Rome, N. Y. Burrone is a stablemate of Decker. He fought his way into favoritism here by defeating Clarence Alleyne, New York Golden Gloves national champion on the last card.

Frasca has a great record in back of him and with the tricks taught him by Fritzie Zivic while in the army he'll be a tough man for any amateur to whip. The Rome battler copped the army boxing championship in New Guinea and before that he cleaned up in matches with several other well-known amateur pugilists.

Other five-round bouts include: Barney Taylor, 130, Utica vs. Johnny Rowland, Albany; Herbie Eaton, 132, Rome vs. Eddie Flagg, Albany. Three rounders on the card list Mickey Starr, 112, Poughkeepsie vs. Sammy Spadaro, Albany; Don DeCesar, 140, Schenectady vs. Harold Pickett, Albany; Nick Kuprick, 155, Newburgh vs. John Glass, Albany. The first prelim goes on at 9 p. m. Ringside seats may be ordered by phoning Kingston 5018.

Pirates Register Defeat Over Guild In Tuesday's Vote

Election Setback Third for Bob Murphy; Only Three Players in Favor of Guild

Pittsburgh, Aug. 21 (AP)—Robert Murphy and his American Baseball Guild struck out for the third time as Pittsburgh Pirate players formally rejected the union in baseball's first collective bargaining election.

Nineteen out of 31 eligible Pirates voted in the election conducted by the Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board yesterday, but only three went to the Guild.

One vote, that of rookie catcher Leroy Jarvis, was challenged by the board on grounds he had not been with the club long enough.

The defeat was the third for Murphy since he launched his organizing campaign early in the season.

Murphy has refused to give up, however. He filed charges of unfair practices yesterday against the Pittsburgh owners before the P.L.R.B.. Similar charges previously wer tossed out by the National Labor Board.

Outwardly calm, Murphy hurled angry words at the club owners in a statement hastily scrawled on the back of one of his pamphlets.

Flocks On Devil's Isle

Cayenne dispatches recently revealed that the infamous Devil's Island penitentiary in French Guiana had been abandoned and that "on that island which has known the agony of many men, herds and flocks alone are now to be seen," according to Lieut.-Colonel Xavier Sainz, of the French Medical Corps. Most famous of the prisoners was Captain Alfred Dreyfus, French Army officer, whose conviction of treason stirred all France before he finally was exonerated.

Fourteen industries unknown in the United States in 1870 now employ 25 per cent of all workers.

The Scoreboard

By JACK HAND

(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Brooklyn stands in dire need of a fiery pep talk from cheerleader Leo Durocher today with its National League lead shriveled to a half game after absorbing a 10-0 pasting from the rejuvenated Pittsburgh Pirates.

Stories that the last-place Pirates were putting on a closing surge to save their jobs under the new owners had been accepted with a grain of salt. But since Frank McKinney, Bing Crosby and associates bought the Pittsburgh franchise, the Bucs have hustled to seven wins in 10 games.

With seven more games against the Cards and four more with the Dodgers, Pittsburgh could very well prove the decisive factor in the championship battle.

Lombardi Is Pounded

Nick Strincevich, who lost his first seven starts in 1946, shut the door in the Brooks' faces, allowing only four hits. The Pirates climbed all over Vic Lombardi and three successors.

The Cardinals lit into Johnny Niggeling for a 4-1 verdict over the Boston Braves.

Johnson Fractures Hand

The Chicago Cubs gained ground on both Brooklyn and St. Louis by whipping the Phillies twice, 5-2 and 10-2, but lost Second Baseman Don Johnson with a fractured left hand.

New York advanced to within a half game of the slumping fifth-place Cincinnati Reds with a 4-3 decision engineered by Dave Koslo with home run help from Walker Cooper and Goody Rosen nullifying a workmanlike effort by Harry Gumbert.

Boston's pennant-bound Red Sox divided a pair with the lowly St. Louis Browns but stretched their lead to 14½ games over New York with only 35 to go.

Jim Bagby grabbed his fifth win in the opener, 5-1, and Ellis Kinder of the Brownies fashioned his first major league success in the 5-4 finale with relief help from Tom Ferick, Teddy Williams bashed his 33rd homer.

Both Cleveland's Bobby Feller and Detroit's Hal Newhouser failed in their attempts to hit the 22 win mark, Feller bowing to Washington, 5-4 and Newhouser losing to Philadelphia 2-0.

Randy Gumpert's eight-game win streak was snapped by Chicago as Ed Lopat turned back New York, 9-2, before a Yankee Stadium crowd of 33,989. Joe DiMaggio collected his 20th homer in the seventh frame.

Approval From Dodger Office Expected Today

Yankee Players Anxious to Come Here as Guests at Game; Meeting Slated Next Tuesday

Members of the Kingston Athletic Association went on record Tuesday night at the Elks' Club favoring the proposed baseball contest between the Brooklyn All-Stars and a picked team of young players 19 years and under from throughout the Hudson Valley to be played at municipal stadium Tuesday, September 3.

After the vote, President Tommy Davitt appointed Charlie Tiano as head of a committee on arrangements for the game and bestowed power on him to contact "Turk" Karam today in an effort to learn whether the September 3 date is satisfactory.

Yankees May Come

Although no further information was received concerning the possible appearance of the entire New York Yankee team here, President Davitt told members that a late communication from Fred Davi, now in New York, said that several Yankee players may come to Kingston as guests of the K.A.A. for the Brooklyn-All Star game if it is played September 3.

The players interested in coming are Phil Rizzuto, Charlie Keller, Aaron Robinson, George "Snuffy" Stirnweiss and Tommy Henrich. These men will not compete in the game but will be here as guests.

The Kingston A.A. will sponsor the area team and it is the plan that players from this city and surrounding areas will be selected to meet the club which recently won the "Brooklyn Against the World" series at Ebbets Field.

Although the game is not officially scheduled as yet, members of the active association last night adopted a ticket plan for the contest. All children up to high school age will be sold student tickets at 25 cents while the price for all adults will be 75 cents.

Meeting Next Tuesday

President Davitt has called another special meeting of the association for next Tuesday, August 27, at the Elks' Club at which time further reports will be presented on the progress of the baseball game.

Larry Glennon, chairman of the football committee, reported that he and his assistants had decided to enter the K.A.A. semi-pro team in the Hudson Valley League which also includes teams from Walden, Highland Falls, Port Jervis, Newburgh and Middletown. The association approved the posting of a $200 forfeit bond and also $25 to meet league expenses upon admission.

The membership drive continued to soar the past few days, President Davitt said last night. Last week 257 members had been enrolled and the new figure last night indicated that membership cards have gone out to exactly 401 interested persons.

Warren Smith, Donald Williams, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, President Davitt, Victor Ruzzo, vice-president, and Robert Rhinehardt, secretary, will meet to draw up a permanent list of bylaws and rules for the organization. The committee is expected to report on same at the next session.

Fielding Yost Dies

Ann Arbor, Mich., Aug. 21 (AP)—Fielding Harris Yost, 75-year-old University of Michigan athletic director emeritus, died Tuesday, victim of an acute gall bladder attack at his home. The elder statesman of Michigan football, Yost had been a semi-invalid for the past few years following his retirement in 1940 as athletic director, living quietly with his wife and retelling the exploits of the Wolverine teams he piloted to scores of triumphs.

Allied Council Is Not in Favor of Doug's Proposal

Tokyo, Aug 21 (AP)—General MacArthur met his first major reversal at the hands of the four-power Allied Council for Japan today

Council members—after they had been given time to consult their governments—rejected his proposal that the seven other Allies be invited to send delegates to Council discussion meetings

British and Russian Council members however were similarly blocked when they urged that MacArthur give the Council his views on each Council recommendation. Russia's Lt. Gen Kuzma Derevyanko had advanced this proposal and British Commonwealth member W MacMahon Ball supported it with the comment that knowing MacArthur's attitude would be helpful

At present, Ball said, the Council advances proposals without knowing how MacArthur receives them. "It is like posting a letter . . . and not knowing if it ever reaches its desintation"

But American Chairman George C Atcheson, Jr., said he could not commit MacArthur to any such procedure

Love Letters Are Spice of Trial For Embezzlement

San Diego, Calif., Aug 21 (AP)—Torrid love letters which Mrs Lucy Malcolmson says "Pappy" Boyington wrote her when she was his 'dearest cuddle bum' spiced court proceedings today as she vigorously denied charges that she embezzled $8000 from him while he was away at war

The auburn-haired defendant was on the stand for the second day at her preliminary hearing on a charge of embezzling part of $20,000 entrusted to her by the Marine flying ace, Lt Col. Gregory "Pappy" Boyington

Mrs Malcolmson, who is the wife of an Australian business executive but had intended to divorce him in order to marry 'Pappy,' testified that Boyington addressed her as 'dearest cuddle bum' in a letter from the South Pacific.

In this letter which was offered in evidence, the Marine flyer asked

'Honey, will you still love me even if I never get to be America's leading ace?

That was back in November, 1943, the testimony indicated when Boyington was running second to Major Joe Foss in shooting down Jap planes Later they tied at 26 each 'Pappy' was captured by the Japs about that time and didn't get back home for a long time

When he did return Mrs Malcolmson testified, they had planned for her to get a Reno divorce and be married immediately afterward That was last January 8 but, instead, Boyington picked that very date to marry Frances Baker, blond movie actress Mrs Malcolmson declared that "Pappy" had not told her a thing about his changed intentions.

"Pappy" and his actress wife heard Mrs. Malcolmson testify that she and Boyington agreed that when she got his Marine Corps pay allotments she was to legally adopt two of Boyington's children (by a former marriage) Mrs Malcolmson explained that she had been unable to get the children away from their mother

11 Negroes Are Held During 'Rifles' Probe

Magee, Miss Aug. 21 (AP)—Fourteen Negroes were being held in three Mississippi jails today as the state sought to learn where some of them procured army rifles and tracer ammunition to fight the battle of Sullivan's Hollow.

Jeff Davis, executive assistant to the governor, said late yesterday that the governor's office had conducted an "on the spot investigation" of the Sullivan Hollow ambush wounding of four peace officers, and that:

"We found no element of racial tension x x xNegroes and Whites mingled and talked freely on the highways and streets as they had always done"

One M-1 rifle and tracer bullets were taken from one of the Negroes captured, Davis said, ad two Negroes had army carbines

A posse succeeded in rounding up the last of the Negroes yesterday Eleven were jailed at Jackson, two here and one at Raleigh No formal charges had been filed

3 Farmers Charged With Murder That Is Five Years Old

Macon, Mo., Aug. 21 (AP)—Three farmers were charged today with first degree murder in the drowning five years ago of a 73-year-old blind widow who, officers say, had given one of them her 58-acre farm in exchange for a promise she would be cared for the rest of her life by him and his family.

State Highway Patrol Capt H A Hansen said Mark Edward Hunolt, 36, had confessed in a signed statement that he and Stanley Brown, 24, went to the farm home of Mrs Dora Bachstein near Clarence, Mo., the night of November 17, 1938, "took her out of bed and forcibly pushed her into the well"

Both were charged with first degree murder as was Stanley's 49-year-old father, Sam Brown, who Hansen said Hunolt accused of giving him $50 to help drown the woman.

Hansen disclosed that Mrs Bachstein in an indenbure January 27, 1938, gave Stanley Brown her farm with the understanding the Browns, her neighbors, were to take care of her and that she later executed a bill of sale giving her other possessions to the youth for "$1 and love and affection."

Lifeguard Missing, Two Other Men Drown

Ogunquit, Me, Aug 21 (AP)—Two men were drowned and a lifeguard was believed to have suffered a similar fate at Ogunquit beach Tuesday as he and two other guards tried to save one of the drowning victims

Heavy surf, tossed up by an overnight storm, and a treacherous undertow imperiled bathers

The body of Joseph T. Kernan, 50, a widower of Brooklyn, N Y, was brought ashore by lifeguards

Three hours afterwards, the body of William Richmond, 50, of Arlington, Mass., floated ashore Frank Moyer, 22, of (9 Campden Road) Scarsdale, N Y, said he had held a man, believed to have been Richmond, afloat in the rough water for a half hour but finally had to release his grip The man had called for assistance

Lifeguard Paul O'Neil of Roslindale, Mass, was missing after the recovery of Kiernan's body.

Protestant Episcopal Church To Deal With Divorce Problems And Merger With Presbyterians

By NATHAN OATIS
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Philadelphia, Aug. 21 (AP)—The church to which George Washington belonged is coming back to the city of its founding to deal with the 20th century problem of divorce and act on a proposal that it merge with another religious body.

The Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, which framed its constitution in Christ Church here in 1785, will hold its 55th general convention at the University of Pennsylvania September 10-20.

Among 19 commission reports to be laid before the convention are one urging action toward union with the Presbyterian Church and another recommending liberalization of the Episcopal Church ban on remarriage of divorced persons.

The convention must elect a presiding bishop to succeed the Rt. Rev. Henry St. George Tucker of Richmond, Va., in office since 1938 and now two years past the retirement age of 70. The Rev. Franklin J. Clark of Montclair, N. J., 72 and convention secretary since 1934, has said he too would retire.

The 153-man House of Bishops will meet in Houston Hall and the 648-man House of Clerical and Lay Deputies in Irvine Hall. By 1945 count, they represent 2,269,962 baptized members and 6,449 clergymen in 7,818 parishes spread over 74 dioceses and 27 missionary districts in the United States and mission fields.

The church's joint commission on approaches to unity ,at work with the Presbyterian Department of Church Cooperation and Union since the last general convention in Cleveland in 1943, split, 10 to 7, on the issue of union.

The majority report embodies a proposed basis of union looking toward "one church, with one standard of faith, one communicant list, one ministry, one system of government" as "the nucleus of a more inclusive union" and recommends resolutions calling for a study of the proposal throughout the church and by the Lambeth Conference and for "decisive action" in the 1949 convention.

The Lambeth Conference is an advisory body of the World Anglican Communion, made up of churches stemming from the Church of England. The Protestant Episcopal Church, as an offshoot of the English church, will take part in its 1948 decennial meeting in London.

"Unless the church becomes increasingly effective in human affairs, as a united community of faith which transcents nationality, race and class, and therefore can hold divided groups in cooperation," says the majority report, "further and more destructive ideological wars are inevitable."

The proposals set out that "whenever definite conflicts are disclosed between the formularies of the two uniting churches, such conflicting teachings shall not be taught as necessary to salvation or so as to break fellowship in the united church."

Under the proposals, government would be by a series of graduated councils and public worship in accordance with usages of either church, Presbyters are held to share equally with bishops in the ministry and ministers would would bear the authority of both traditions.

The minority report points out that a 1937 resolution on unity with the Presbyterians was passed unanimously and without debate and cites this as evidence the resolution was not understood then "as it has been interpreted by some recently."

"It would be a distinct act of apostasy for our church or any church," the minority report reads, "to pledge itself to an act of unity blindfolded, by giving a blank check in regard to Christian faith and practice . . ."

The report on the joint commission on holy matrimony proposes revision of the church's Canons 16 and 17. Similar proposals have been voted down at every convention for a decade. Under Canon 17 now, no minister may marry any person divorced from a husband or wife still living, unless the person is the innocent party in a divorce for adultery.

Under the proposed revision, any divorced church member might wait a year after the decree and then apply to his bishop or ecclesiastical authority for permission to be remarried and the bishop would hand down a written judgment based on a study of evidence by himself and an advisory court. The revision does not mention adultery.

Not For Art's Sake

Michigan City, Ind., Aug. 21 (AP)—Patrolman Art Menke pushed through a beach crowd of males, aged 6 to 76, to find a shapely, red-haired girl posing in the nude for a photographer.

"This is for art," the photographer told him.

"Nope," Menke decided. "I'm Art and it's not for me," and took the pair to the police station where they were booked on charges of indecent exposure.

Crying Wolf

Chicago, Aug. 21 (AP)—Sam Pecorado, Chicago park district official, reports his 150 male life guards frequently are lured into the water by fake screams of help from men trying to attract one of the 56 women guards.

The latter complain that sometimes women bathers pull the same stunt for the male guards' benefit.

The guards of both sexes are getting sick of it, Pecorado said.

Holding the Bag

Hays, Kas., Aug. 21 (AP)—Mrs. Van Hartman was mystified when she reached into her ice box for a sack of eggs and pulled out a bag of silver coins and pennies.

Just then her father, R. S. Maxwell, telephoned to ask anxiously if she had carried home the Lutheran Church collection the night before by mistake.

He had concealed the money in the bag, and next morning found himself counting eggs instead of cash.

Good Taste Today

By Emily Post

(Author of "Etiquette," "Children Are People," etc.)

NO CAUSE FOR EMBARRASSMENT

A young woman writes me: "I am private secretary to a man who has a son and daughter my age and whose wife is dead. He has asked me to go home to dinner several times and I've always given "busy" as an excuse. My sister and I share a very small apartment in which it would be difficult to entertain. If I should accept his invitation, how may I make some return and under the circumstances, would it be wiser not to accept?"

Unless you have some personal distrust for him, there is no reason why you should not accept his invitation. There would be no obligation to return the invitation —not even a number of invitations. If in time you and his daughter should become friends you could invite her to go to a movie or go out with you to tea. You might send her some candy or a few flowers on her birthday or other suitable occasion in appreciation of her father's kindness.

Church Offerings

Dear Mrs. Post: (1) When a man and a girl go to church together should the man give her her offering or should she take care of it herself? (2) Would your answer be different if you knew this was his church?

Answers: (1) In a Catholic church where there is a seat offering, he should pay both for her and for himself. But she should put her own money in the collection plate—or whatever is proffered. (2) No.

Garden Wedding

Dear Mrs. Post: When having a wedding in the garden, should this fact be designated on the wedding invitations so that people will know ahead of time? I imagine that if they did know, some of the women might want to wear large hats outdoors in the afternoon, which they might not choose to do if they thought the wedding was in the house.

Answer: Certainly you may notify your guests that "the ceremony will take place in the garden, weather permitting."

City or Country

Dear Mrs. Post: Please express your opinion of a young couple's walking along the streets hand in hand.

Answer: City—no! In the country—ordinary friends, no; husband and wife or those who are engaged, why not?

How would you prepare an outdoor altar? Send for Mrs. Post's leaflet, "A Wedding in the Garden," in care of The Kingston Daily Freeman, P.O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. and inclose a 3-cent stamped, self-addressed envelope.

W. T. Grant Co. 20th Anniversary Sale August 29

The W. T. Grant Co. will celebrate it's 20th anniversary in Kingston with a mammoth sale starting on Saturday, August 29, it was announced today.

The sale is being staged in sincere appreciation of the service that the Grant store has rendered many thousand satisfied customers during that time, company officials said.

Grant company officials said that several thousand dollars worth of quality and select merchandise have been especially purchased for this gala event. Hundreds of outstanding values of hard-to-get items will be offered to the general public as an expression of gratitude for the exceptional response that residents of this vicinity have given the W. T. Grant Co. throughout 20 years of progress.

The W. T. Grant Co. first opened its doors in Kingston on August 28, 1926 and since then has always complied with the theory of offering the public quality merchandise at minimum cost, plus excellent and courteous service at all times.

Since that opening date, the Grant store has kept abreast of the trend of the times. A year ago the local store was completely remodeled in order to meet the demands for larger lines of merchandise displayed with modern equipment and fixtures and is now one of the leading department stores in Kingston.

Elaborate plans have been formulated for the grand re-opening on this birthday celebration. Counters have been completely re-layed and the store will take on a decided new and fresh appearance for the event. Radio broadcasts from within the store will be featured as well as radio interviews to obtain on-the-spot customer reaction to the affair. Outstanding local personalities also will be on hand to offer their felicitations to the Grant company on its 20th anniversary.

The store will be closed for two days prior to the birthday sales event in order to complete final arrangements for opening day. Every detail of the anniversary sale has been planned carefully with an eye toward making it one of the greatest in Kingston's history.

Brooklyn Piers Hit By Shoremen's Halt

New York, Aug. 21 (AP) — The walkout of about 3,500 longshoremen which started at a few piers Monday afternoon and spread to 26 yesterday, affected Brooklyn piers today for the first time, the War Shipping Administration reported. All Manhattan and New Jersey piers previously affected by the walkout remained tied up today. The W.S.A. tabulation placed the total number of piers affected at 28, the number of longshoremen idle at 3,500, and the number of vessels affected at 45.

The longshoremen are members of the International Longshoremen's Association (A.F.L.) and although the issues involved in the stoppage have not been stated officially they were reported to center around a demand for a week's vacation.

Tito Defends Yugoslav Course

ters and having suffered inestimable material losses."

Tito added that "certain allied countries" did not observe professed principles of their care for the independence of small nations "even in the case of an allied country such as Yugoslavia."

"There can be no question today of two fronts: western and eastern, western countries and eastern countries," he said. "No, the question today is one of true democracy versus reaction."

The admission—contained in a note dispatched by the ministry last night to U. S. Ambassador Richard C. Patterson—brought from Patterson the bitter comment; "A year and a half ago they welcomed our planes and now they shoot them down."

The Yugoslav note, which termed Monday's incident a "regrettable accident," made no reference to the U. S. transport plane downed August 9 nor to the seven occupants of that plane now geing held at Ljubjana. It said two members of the crew parachuted from the plane forced down Monday, but added: "there are signs that unfortunately victims fell in this accident."

(In London, the Yugoslav News Agency Tanjug issued a translation of a talk broadcast to Yugoslav workers by Premier Marshal Tito in which he said he had witnessed the downing of one of the planes. The text did not make clear which. An earlier translation by Tanjug specifically said it was that of August 9, but the later text did not carry any date and Belgrade dispatches said it was likely he had seen the second plane attack, but not the first.

(In the later text, Tito complained of "incessant new violations of our frontiers and territory" by "not only civilian planes but military planes * * * not single planes alone but even whole squadrons."

(He commented that "when it happens, as it did happen, that a plane is forced to land, * * * statements are put out that the plane could have lost its way in the clouds, though the sky was perfectly clear."

(This seemed to be a contradiction of Patterson's statement Sunday that the plane forced down August 9 had been lost in the clouds.

("Furthermore," said Tito, "slanders are being thrown against our army. False statements were made that the plane was not given a signal to land, that the plane was fired upon when it had already landed etcetera, etcetera. All this is not true, as I have been myself a witness to this event.")

Yugoslav Version

The Yugoslav version of Monday's incident was as follows:

"On August 19 last an American aircraft appeared over Bled. Yugoslav air authorities invited the aircraft to land. Signals to that effect were given continually between 0850 (8:50 a. m.) and 0902 (9:02 a. m.) hours, the scene being watcher by many people on the spot.

"Since the aircraft refused compliance with the invitation Yugoslav fighters forced it to land. On its landing the aircraft got afire and crashed. Two members of the crew parachuted out. There are signs that unfortunately victims fell in this accident."

(This would indicate that three U. S. airmen died, since the European Air Transport Command previously had announced that the plane carried three officers and two enlisted men. There was no indication as to whether the two who parachuted have been found.)

Previous eye-witness accounts said the transport apparently was fired in the air and spiralled down trailing black smoke.

"The government of the Federative People's Republic of Yugoslavia deeply regrets this unhappy incident," last night's note said, "but points out that the responsibility therefor lies with the dependent authorities of the American government * * * since the Yugoslav government has repeatedly drawn attention to its view regarding the subject of unauthorized flights."

The note listed alleged unauthorized flights over Yugoslav territory.

(In Rome yesterday the European Air Transport Command said American planes henceforward would give Yugoslavia territory a wide berth in the regular flights from Austria to Italy, but that no instructions had been received to cancel scheduled flights to Belgrade.)

Held on Gambling Charge

Thomas Veschi, 47, of 963 67th street, Brooklyn, had his hearing adjourned until this afternoon, when arraigned before Police Justice Charles Sickles in the Town of Saugerties on a charge of bookmaking. Veschi was arrested by Sgt. Reilly and Trooper Dunn of the Lake Katrine barracks yesterday for operating a gambling establishment near Schoentag's on Route 9-W.

300 Attended Youth Center Dance in 'Y'

Three hundred young people attended the Youth Center dance at the Y.M.C.A. last night. It was the largest attendance since the Youth Center was established.

These dances will be held each Tuesday and Thursday evenings for the balance of the month. After Labor Day the dances will be held Tuesday and Saturday nights.

Deplores the Way Combat Vets Are Sentenced to Prison

Pittsburgh, Aug. 21 (AP) — Declaring that "American fighting men, many with heroic combat records, are just disappearing behind some prison stockade," Rep. James Fulton (R-Penna.) said last night he has demanded that Secretary of War Patterson investigate the case of 21-year-old Pvt. James Jones of Pittsburgh.

Fulton said Jones was sentenced to 30 years' hard labor in Italy and that neither the boy's family nor his congressman have been able to discover the charges against him or the place of his imprisonment.

To a letter he wrote the War Department March 22, Fulton said he got an answer which said:

"We have no information as to the trial of this soldier."

On August 5, the War Department sent the boy's mother a brief message that he was under sentence for 30 years.

Cutback of 104,000 Employes Ordered

Washington, Aug. 21 (AP)—Budget Director James E. Webb today ordered a cutback of 104,400 in the number of federal executive department workers in the next three months.

By November 16, he said, one out of each 25 current employes will be off the payroll and the number remaining will be down to 2,362,300. "Normal decline in seasonal employment" and shift of the U. S. Employment Service to the states are expected to account for most of those who go.

Unaffected and uncounted in those figures are congressional and court employes, cabinet members and agency heads, military personnel, and civilian workers of the army, navy and War Shipping Administration outside the U. S. and its territories.

Including these, the total number of federal government employes throughout the world stood at 2,[illegible] at the end of last June. Before the war, the number was 887,500, and during the war it went above 3,000,000.

The brunt of dismissals will fall upon the "white collar" workers in the ordinary peace-time establishments of the executive branch —stenographers, executives, scientists, clerks, customs inspectors and so forth.

C.I.O. Sues Radio Station

San Francisco, Aug. 21 (AP)—A C.I.O. union has filed a $100,000 damage suit against the American Broadcasting Company and San Francisco radio station KGO charging breach of contract by the banning of broadcasts by C.I.O. President Philip Murray and Secretary James Carey. The suit was filed yesterday by Donald Henderson, president of the C.I.O. Food, Tobacco and Agricultural Workers' Union, who said that $246 was paid A.B.C. for the radio time. Donald Searle, Pacific division executive for A.B.C., said the speeches were ruled out on grounds that they were limited in interest primarily to the workers of a single industry.

Hat Strike Ends

Philadelphia, Aug. 21 (AP)—A nine-day strike of 2,000 Stetson Hat Company workers was over today after a labor-management agreement was reached to send the dispute to arbitration.

General McNarney Raps LaGuardia

Commander of U.S. Forces in Europe Says His Allegations Baseless

By EDWIN SHANKE

Berlin, Aug. 21 (AP)—Gen. Joseph T. McNarney accused U. N. R. R. A. Director General Fiorello LaGuardia today of making "completely baseless" allegations that American occupation forces had deliberately opposed humanitarian and repatriation aims of U.N.R.R.A.

LaGuardia left here today for warsaw to continue his inspection tour of U.N.R.R.A.'s European activities.

In an unprecedentedly blunt statement, the usually reticent McNarney categorically denied a charge which he attributed to LaGuardia that the army was opposing U.N.R.R.A.'s aims.

The statement by the commander of U. S. forces in Europe came as a complete surprise, since he and LaGuardia had dinner together last night just after the U.N.R.R.A. director had said at a news conference that "from now on" he expected U.N.R.R.A. to work hand in glove with the American and British Armies.

McNarney's statement, which was one of the longest he has issued since assuming his post in Germany, also disclosed that one Russian secret agent had been known to operate "under the cloak of U.N.R.R.A."

Commenting on published reports, attributed to an unidentified British general, that U.N.R.R.A. was being used as an umbrella covering widespread activity of Russian secret agents, McNarney said:

"We know of very few cases of agents of any type who operated under the cloak of U.N.R.R.A. Of these, only one had been positively identified NKVD (Russian agent."

McNarney said he issued the statement to "clarify the entire situation" because of "stories attacking the integrity and good faith of the U. S. military forces in Germany which have recently come out of the U.N.R.R.A. council meeting in Geneva."

He said that LaGuardia had made a "baseless and incorrect" charge at the meeting that the U. S. Army in Germany opposes continuation of U.N.R.R.A. in connection with the care and repatriation of displaced persons.

Dog Dies Saving Master

Kalispell, Mont., Aug. 21 (AP)—A small, mongrel dog trotted gaily along behind his master, Donald Baertsch and a companion, William Barbee, as the two did trail maintenance work in the Spotted Bear country. Suddenly a grizzly bear roared out of a patch of huckleberries. Baertsch tripped and the bear attacked. The dog harried the bear until it turned, giving Baertsch and Barbee time to climb trees. Then, with one sweep of a paw, the bear snapped the mongrel's back. Baertsch suffered only a sprained ankle and bruises.

2 White Men Held

Collins, Miss., Aug. 21 (AP)—The second incident of armed conflict between white people and negroes in Mississippi this week broke out here yesterday after two white men allegedly attempted to rape two negro girls at the point of firearms. Sheriff John Sanford said he had arrested Ernest Earl McDonald, Jr., 20, and Oscar Moore, 18, both white, on charges sworn to by two daughters of a negro preacher that the white men attempted to rape them at the point of firearms.

New Trade Treaty

Moscow, Aug. 21 (AP)—The Russian Government announced today the signing of a new trade treaty with Denmark regulating all questions of commerce between the two countries and embracing a most favored nation clause.

Dewey on Tour

New York, Aug. 21 (AP)—Governor Dewey departed for a two-day upstate tour today which will take him to Oswego, Yates and Schuyler counties.

Says Russians Saved Him From Japanese

Tokyo, Aug. 21 (AP)—Henry Pu Yi, former puppet ruler of Manchuria, declared today a Russian plane swooped down on a Mukden air field and snatched him from the Japanese just as they were preparing to carry him off by force to Japan at the war's end.

Pu Yi told the International War Crimes Court his version of how he passed into Russian hands —an incident yet to be clarified.

The fallen puppet declared that Japanese generals "threatened me with force to move to Japan" where "they wanted to kill us in order to silence us." By "us" he meant himself and his family.

Body of Man Is Found Impaled on Fence Near Bridge

New York, Aug. 21 (AP)—A 60-year-old man tentatively identified by police as Roger A. Kingsbury, of 612 West 144th street, was killed this morning when impaled on an iron picket fence after a 200-foot plunge from the north side of the George Washington bridge.

Police of Emergency Squad No. 5, from the West 152nd street station, said he either jumped or fell from the bridge.

The body was found on the fence, which surrounds the base of the New York anchorage near the river's edge, by a painter, Edward Motley, of 438 Hall street, Perth Amboy, N. J., as he reported for work to paint the fence.

The man was pronounced dead by an ambulance attendant from Mother Cabrini Memorial Hospital. The body was taken to the Bellevue Hospital morgue to await positive identification.

Budapest, Bucharest Landings Eliminated

Vienna, Aug. 21 (AP) — Pan American Airline flights from Vienna to Istanbul no longer will stop at Budapest and Bucharest because landing facilities in the Hungarian and Romanian cities have been refused to United States Commercial Airlines, U. S. Army headquarters announced today.

It was expected that flights would be rerouted from Vienna to Naples and thence Istanbul on the line which runs from New York to New Delhi via London Brussels and Prague. The detour would be several hundred miles.

Goldfarb Held

New York, Aug. 21 (AP)—Harry Goldfarb, 46, a baker's assistant, was arraigned in Felony court today on a felonious assault charge of throwing acid into the face and chest of a woman companion, Miss Mary Foss, a milliner. Police said Goldfarb tossed the contents of a vial of acid at Miss Foss during an argument in a taxicab last night. She was treated by a private physician. Magistrate James A. Blanchfield set Goldfarb's bail at $5,000.

Attack Is Made On A.F.L. During I.T.U. Convention

Miami Beach, Fla., Aug. 21 (AP) —A score of proposals to amend the general laws of the International Typographical Union were on the agenda of the 88th annual convention today, including retroactive pay for all new or extended contracts to the expiration date of the previous contract.

Other proposals would raise the pension for members over 60 with 25 years continuous membership from $10 to $12 a week or from $10 to $15 a week.

Delegates yesterday drew applause from the floor when they castigated the parent American Federation of Labor's leadership.

The attack came during debate on a proposal by John W. Jamison, Jr., of Birmingham, Ala., pledging support to the A.F.L. The powerful Committee on Laws reported unfavorably on the proposal and James A Griffey, of Little Rock, Ark., urged its defeat, saying "it will show the A.F.L. that the I.T.U. is not content with the type of leadership today." The proposal was killed by voice vote.

More than nine-tenths of the population of Haiti is of African descent.

Ham, Chops, Steaks May Go Up and Become Scarce

Washington, Aug. 21 (AP)—Hams may go back to 38 cents a pound, pork chops to 40 cents, and choice sirloin steak to 56 cents.

If you can get them.

The Price Decontrol Board, in ordering ceilings back on livestock and meat last night, warned that supplies in the next year "cannot possibly take care of demand—certainly not at anything like reasonable prices."

O.P.A. Administrator Paul A. Porter said the decision in favor of ceilings and subsidies means that prices will be restored "at or close to "the June 30 levels for beef, pork and veal.

That would mean a rollback of price increases which the board said have ranged from 35 to 80 per cent in the last 50 ceiling-less days.

Lamb still is under study and "unpredictable," Porter said. The June 30 ceiling on steaks and chops was 64 cents in New York and San Francisco, 62 cents in Chicago.

Ceilings Clamped On Three Items

meat subsidies to be paid again, at June 29 rates.

3 Ordered price controls reestablished on soybeans and cotton seed products, including salad and cooking oils.

Shortly after the three-man panel announced its unanimous rulings last night, O.P.A. Chief Paul Porter told a reporter:

"Restoration of subsidies on meats means we can re-establish ceilings at or close to June 30 levels.

"This is the case on beef, pork and veal. We have not decided yet on lamb."

O.P.A. had announced earlier that ceilings would become effective Friday or any commodities recontrolled by the board.

Officials said today, however, that a plan under consideration calls for putting ceilings on ceilings on live animals Friday, with a time lag in each case before they apply at the packer, wholesale and retail outlets.

If this procedure is adopted, officials added, it may be several days before retail ceilings are reinvoked.

In allowing milk, butter and cheese to remain ceiling-free, the board cautioned:

"If (prices for) dairy products move upward from here on out, this board can and will put the industry back under control."

Explains Decisions

Board Chairman Roy L. Thompson said in a radio address explaining the decisions that retail milk prices have climbed an average of three cents a quart since ceilings lapsed July 1, and that two cents of this increase "just made up for subsidies" which were discontinued at the same time.

As for butter, Thompson said the subsidy was about 15 cents a pound, and added:

"When you add that 15 cents to the prices you were paying under ceilings in June, I think you'll find the present prices are not far out of line. * * *

On grains, the board held that no ceilings should be restored on wheat, rye, corn, oats, mixed feed oats, barley and grain sorghums, or any livestock or poultry feed made entirely from one or more of the basic grains.

Only on flaxseed and by-product grains did the board order reimposition of ceilings in the grains category.

On these items and in the case of meats, soybeans and cotton seed products, the board said it had directed restoration of controls because it had found that:

Prices had risen "unreasonably" above June 30 ceilings.

Supply was scarce.

Price regulation was "practicable, enforceable and in the public interest."

Congress stipulated that controls could not be slapped back on unless all three of these yardsticks applied.

Thompson said the board had received "reliable reports" that livestock prices rose from 20 to 50 per cent after controls lapsed, and that prices "received by packers went up at least a third higher than they were on June 30."

O.P.A. and the Agriculture Department were authorized to continue to pay meat subsidies at the previous rate until at least next January 10, when they must be cut by 50 per cent.

"This reduction," the board said, "will provide the consumer with a more gradual transition to the removal of the entire subsidy on April 1, 1947."

Congress set that date as the deadline for payment of food subsidies.

The spirit in which the nation accepts the board's decisions will, in the weeks ahead," Thompson declared, "provide a true test of the country's willingness and determination to protect itself against the tragedy of inflation."

Firemen Take Up Band Question at Meeting Last Night

of the action taken by the local parade committee, but insisted that if Clayton Band could not parade with them they would withdraw from the line of march.

Held Own Parade

When the parade was held the Pioneers and Clayton Band did not participate, but held their own parade following the regular line of march, behind the regular parade. The Ellenville fire company and its band were greeted with hearty applause by those who viewed the parade.

Approximately 200 volunteer firemen from the city and county attended the meeting last night when the volunteers were the guests of the Uniformed Paid Firemen's Association, Local 461.

President Edward Mains presided at the meeting, and reports of the various officers were made. The report of the board of directors showed that the association now numbered 55 fire companies with an individual membership in the association of 813 volunteer firemen.

John A. Heaney was elected a director for a five year term, while Charles Turner of New Paltz, a past president of the organization, was elected a director for two years to fill the unexpired term of the late Phil Fischer of the St. Remy Fire Department.

Convention in Port Ewen

President Mains announced that the next annual convention of the county firemen would be held in Port Ewen in July, 1947, and that the five fire departments of the town of Esopus would unite as hosts to the convention.

Charles Johanson of the Esopus Fire Department was elected a delegate to the State Firemen's Association in convention at Riverhead, L. I., this week, while Secretary Fred Harder was elected a delegate to the Hudson Valley Volunteer Firemen's Association.

Resolutions of sympathy in memory of Phil Fischer and William White of the St. Remy Fire Department, and Michael Howard and Patrick Holmes of Rescue Hook & Ladder Co., who had died during the past year were unanimously adopted.

White was killed in action in Germany.

It was announced that the September meeting of the association would be held in New Paltz, while the October meeting would be held in Woodstock.

The meeting was followed by a social hour and the serving of refreshments.

Price Decontrol Board Learns of ThePotomacCode

Washington, Aug. 21 (AP)—The Price Decontrol Board learned about the code of the Potomac in the nick of time.

That code—never, never make anybody mad if you can possibly help it—undoubtedly explains the flurry of eleventh hour changes made in Chairman Roy L. Thompson's broadcast to the nation last night.

Thompson, whose three-man panel is only 18 days old, almost but didn't quite say sharp things to Congress, industry, farmers and labor. This takes in nearly everybody, but a seasoned bureaucrat would almost as soon be caught speaking ill of veterans.

For instance, about Congress. The advance text of Thompson's speech said:

"For we were following the law of Congress, as nearly as our conscience and our judgment would allow."

A hurry-up call from board headquarters killed that out entirely.

Farther on, the prepared text said the board hoped that labor leaders would restrain "any impulse to get theirs while the getting is good."

A last-minute switch changed it to read: "We hope that labor will restrain any impulse to advance its interests against the interests of the country."

As for farmers and industry, the text said it was hoped they would restrain any impulse to extract the last ounce of profit."

Perish the phrase: The final version, as broadcast, said the board hoped they would curb "any impulse to obtain more than a fair profit."

Predict Shortage Of Meat in Month

been kept on the staff, he added, in anticipation of restoration of meat price control and had been assigned temporarily to work on fruits and vegetables and other foods on which controls were restored soon after June 30.

Gottesman said the expected meat shortage would be an incentive "to black marketers to gouge consumers on prices," adding that the shortage would have come regardless of the restoration of price controls.

"It is expected that meat supplies will diminish in September," he said. "This is because growers have been shipping for the kill cattle which should have been fattened in the feeding pens."

Slavs, Greeks May Break

Athens, Aug. 21 (AP)—Yugoslav Minister Isador Cankar is scheduled to leave Athens Friday for Belgrade and extreme leftist sources said this departure was tantamount to an interruption of diplomatic relations between Yugoslavia and Greece. These same sources said Cankar had been ordered home by his government because of attacks in some sections of the monarchist press against Marshal Tito, together with accusations that autonomist bands armed in Yugoslavia were operating in Greece.

Steingut, Democratic Leader Of Assembly Is Renominated

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 21 (AP)—Irwin Steingut of Brooklyn, Democrat majority leader of the State Assembly, has won renomination for a 24th term by beating off a strong bid to unseat him in the Kings County District he has represented since 1922.

Steingut and 13 other legislators —10 assemblymen and three senators—survived yesterday's primary tests in which two assemblymen and one senator went down.

The fate of three other assemblymen was uncertain this morning.

The primary victims were:

State Senator Robert S. Bainbridge, Staten Island Republican, defeated by Robert E. Johnson.

Assemblyman James H. Chase, Cayuga county Republican, who lost to Charles A. Cusick.

Assemblyman Philip Blank, Kings county Democrat, loser to Samuel Kaplan.

Three Republican senators were renominated: Walter Bewley, Lockport, a senator since 1939 who was first elected to the Assembly in 1914; Arthur H. Wicks, Kingston, senator since 1927 and chairman of the Finance Committee, and Edmund P. Radwan, Buffalo, designated to seek his first full term.

Democratic Assemblyman Louis DeSalvo of Manhattan's Second District won renomination over John J. Lamua, former G.O.P. assemblyman. Lamula also lost the Republican nomination to Alfred B.Licato but won the American Labor Party nomination over DeSalvio.

Philip J. Schupler, Democratic incumbent from the Kings 19th, won renomination over Samuel Shapiro.

Another Democratic assemblyman, Philip V. Baczkowksi of the Erie 5th, won over Chester F. Radziwon.

Republican assemblymen renominated included: Richard H. Knauf, Broome; Harlow E. Bacon, Oneida 1st; John S. Thompson, Orleans; Lawrence Van Cleef, Seneca; Christopher H. Lawrence, Westchester 5th, and Frank J. McMullen, Kings 9th.

Incumbents whose renomination was still uncertain early today were: Republicans—Julius Volker, Erie 7th, and Jacob E. Hollinger, Niagara 1st.

Steingut polled 4,966 votes against Paul Seiderman's 3,564 in a bitter fight, Seiderman had charged that Steingut was unfit for office as a result of a special grand jury presentment that charged Steingut with being unable to account properly for the source of some of his expenditures during a 10-year period ending in 1944.

Supreme Court Justice Daniel F. Imrie fined Steingut $250 and sentenced him to 10 days in jail for criminal contempt after accusing him of "palpable evasion." The action later was reversed by the Appellate Division and the Assembly unanimously adopted a committee report giving Steingut a clean bill.

Assemblyman Leo Isacson, only American Labor Party member of the legislature, lost his bid for both the Democratic and Republican nomination in the 13th Bronx District. He was unopposed for the A.L.P. designation. William J. Drohan won the G.O.P. nod over Isacson, who had it two years ago, and Peter H. Brandt won the Democratic designation in a three-way fight involving Thomas C. O'Leary.

Pays $5 Fine After Accident Near Hurley

Sam Schulman, 55, of 87 East 96th street, Brooklyn, paid a $5 fine for a traffic violation when arraigned before Justice Roger H. Loughran in Hurley yesterday.

Schulman's arrest for failing to keep to the right of a two-lane highway followed an accident involving his car and a 1934 Studebaker operated by David Edward Hughes, 26, of 38 Boulder avenue, Kingston, about 11:30 a. m. Tuesday on Route 209, near Hurley.

No personal injuries were reported. The Hughes machine had its left front fender and tire torn, while Schulman's car, a 1939 Plymouth, was damaged near the left rear fender.

According to information furnished by the sheriff's office, the accident occurred when Schulman's car, eastbound on Route 209, got over too far to the left side of the road and sideswiped the westbound Hughes machine.

Deputies Frost and Ellsworth investigated for the sheriff's office.

Says Dutchess Is Strong for Donovan

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Aug. 21 (AP)—Sentiment in Dutchess county "is strong for General William Donovan's candidacy for the U. S. Senate," says State Senator Frederick Bontecou, county Republican leader.

In a telegram yesterday to Glen R. Bedenkapp, state G.O.P. chairman, Bontecou urged that the wartime head of Strategic Services be designated for the post at the Republican State Convention September 3 and 4 at Saratoga Springs.

While he has not announced his intention of running, Donovan's name has been prominently mentioned in pre-convention discussions of the senatorial candidacy.

Bontecou said repudiation of Donovan's "candidacy would cost the Republican party many votes."

"The attack on him (Donovan) by the state A.F.L. and his answer crystallized the issue," Bontecou said.

The Executive Council of the New York State Federation of Labor on Sunday termed Donovan's public record "anti-union and anti-labor" and said "the federation will use all of its resources to defeat him" if he were named G.O.P. candidate for senator.

In reply, Donovan said the statement was untrue, that he had worked amicably with the A.F.L., C.I.O. and the Railroad Brotherhoods during the war and that they were of great assistance to the O.S.S. in its work in Europe.

Slate About Completed

Salt Lake City, Aug. 21 (AP)—Utah's congressional slate for the fall election was virtually completed today as Arthur C. Watkins, Orem fruit grower, was far out in front in the runoff primary for the Republican nomination for U. S. Senate and William O. Dawson appeared to be the G.O.P.'s candidate for second district representative.

The World Today

By GLENN BABB
A. P. Foreign Affairs Analyst

All the noisy acrimony of the Paris Peace Conference thus far has been concerned with trifles compared with a clash of Wills between the Western powers and Russia which has been going on in the classical manner of diplomacy, behind the closed doors of foreign offices. The great powers are locked in a test of strength and nerves over one of the oldest [illegible] of world politics, the straits question, or, to use the popular name, the Dardanelles.

Since this involves one of the primary elements of world mastery and strategy, since it touches on one of the most cherished ambitions of the Russian state for three and a half centuries and since it may determine control of the vital Middle East, there is a grimness about the clash beyond anything yet developed at Paris.

The other powers involved have been pulling and hauling at the straits question at least since the beginning of the Nineteenth Century, some of them longer. But now for the first time the United States has declared itself in on the game. Nothing in the post-war period has shown so significantly how far the United States has moved from the policies that guided its international conduct during the period between the First and Second World Wars, or so definitely emphasized the conviction of the American Government that this county can not remain aloof from any contest involving a shift in world forces.

Russia Serves Demands

The issue is this: Russia has served demands on Turkey, the guardian of the straits—besides the Dardanelles these include the Bosporus and the Sea of Marmora—which neither Turkey nor the Western powers find acceptable. These are, first, that the Black Sea powers alone take over control of the straits and, second, that Russia and Turkey jointly assume their defense.

The Black Sea powers are Bulgaria, Romania, Russia and Turkey. Since the first two are now firmly in the Russian orbit and seem destined to remain there, Turkey would become a permanent minority of one in any Dardanelles councils. And the second demand would mean that Russia would move in alongside Turkey in military occupation of the shores of the straits. The junior partner in such an arrangement would have little chance to hold his own.

Soviet's Great Dream

Acceptance of these terms would mean fulfillment of a dream which Russian rulers have held since Peter the Great three and a half centuries ago determined to break through the bonds of land and ice that held Russia away from unhindered access to the seven seas. Never perhaps in all history of the glacier-like spread of Russian territories toward the warm waters has any of Peter's successors looked upon a prospect so inviting as that spread before Stalin. The Baltic now lies largely within the Russian sphere; through Yugoslavia the Adriatic is in effect accessible; Russian power is reestablished in Port Arthur and Dairen on the ice-free waters of the orient; possession of the Kuriles widens Soviet access to the Pacific, and Soviet power is moving with great pressures toward the Mediterranean and the Persian Gulf.

The United States, Britain and France have ranged themselves behind Turkey in opposing the thrust through the straits. They are not opposing all Russian desires, however.

Plane Crash Kills 2, Injures 10 in West

Moline, Ill., Aug. 21 (AP)—The pilot and co-pilot of a chartered plane were killed and 10 passengers were injured early today when the craft crashed approximately a mile south of the Moline airport.

The plane was reported chartered by the Hotel Lincoln, New York city, and was said to have been en route from New York to San Francisco.

The names of the killed and injured were not learned immediately.

First reports said the plane had circled the airport prior to the crash, the cause of which was not known at once.

Among the injured were two babies.

The crash occurred about 5:45 a. m. (C.S.T.).

Car Stalls on Tracks, Smash Blocks Traffic

Yonkers, N. Y., Aug. 21 (AP)—A west-bound fast freight train on the New York Central Railroad smashed into a stalled automobile on a crossing here Tuesday, blocking the west bound tracks for several minutes. No one was injured.

The operator of the car, John Mybel, 35, of (28 Caryl avenue) Yongers, said the car stalled in the center of the crossing. Although aided by volunteers, he was unable to push it from the tracks.

Myhel leaped from the automobile just before the train with Engineer E. J. Gilligan of Harmon in the cab, struck the car. The automobile was thrown to one side and caught fire.

Carlos Dionisio Slain Says Report From Manila

Manila, Aug. 21 (AP)—Central Luzon's uncertain government-peasant truce was shaken today by mysterious disappearances, by bloody outbreaks and by the slaying—in jail—of Carlos Dionisio, liberal leader and former mayor of Bulacan.

Dionisio, arrested in Manila last week after Pablo Roxas, another former mayor of Bulacan, had been murdered, was shot down in the Bulacan provincial jail.

Military police meanwhile confirmed that 50 townsfolk had been slain in the town of Tuclung. The governor of the province accused Hukbalahaps of the massacre.

Albania Minister Asks Peace Parley to Seat Him as Equal

By ROBERT C. WILSON

Paris, Aug. 21 (AP)—The prime minister of Albania, Enver Hoxha, demanded today that the peace conference seat him as an equal and asserted that the Balkan state never would consent to any changes in its borders "for those frontiers are sacred."

Many of his remarks were directed against Greece and its Prime Minister Constantine Tsaldaris, also a target of Soviet Russia.

Referring to Tsaldaris's mention of the Albanian Quisling government during the Italian occupation, he asserted that all who remained had been killed and "those war criminals who fled are in the best hotels in Rome."

He asked whether Tsaldaris would consider France an aggressor because Hitler had expected to wage aggression from French territory. It was from Albania, which Italy had seized as a prelude to the last war, that Mussolini attacked Greece.

Hoxha asserted that Albania would like to be friendly with the Greek people "but the Greek people have no influence in their government."

He demanded that the peace treaty "put an end to the aggressive, imperialistic policy of Italy."

Hoxha received a long burst of applause and so did Alfonso R. W. Diaz, spokesman for Mexico, who spoke next.

The Mexican ambassador to Paris expressed his country's hope that "a just and equitable peace will be concluded" with Italy that "will permit her to join with dignity in the concert of nations."

As the speeches droned on, an informant in the peace conference secretariat said 250 "fundamental" amendments to the draft treaties and an undetermined number of others had been presented by peace conference members. An American source said the United States had proposed none; that its position was already stated in the five treaty drafts. The deadline for filing amendments passed at midnight.

Bulgaria, one of the beaten Axis conference, issued a statement asserting that the claims of Greece, one of the Allied victors, to $708,000,000 reparations were "fantastic and in contradiction" to the draft treaty's declaration that Bulgaria would pay "partial" indemnities to Greece and Yugoslavia.

British Foreign Minister Ernest Bevin, making his first appearance at the conference, presided over the meeting, called to hear statements from Albania, Egypt, Mexico, Austria and Iran.

The session interrupted a series of commission hearings on big four treaty proposals, and turned the Luxembourg Palace convention platform over to countries involved in World War 2 but not invited to participate actively in peace decisions.

The first Italian attempt to ease the terms of her proposed peace treaty ended in a stalemate following a meeting yesterday of the conference's political commission on Italy.

The commission declined to endorse a formal Rome request for greater consideration as a co-belligerent against Germany, but left the door open for future concessions crediting Italy for her help to the Allies after Mussolini was overthrown.

'His Faithful' Display Bouquet for Mussolini

Rome, Aug. 21 (AP)—A bouquet of red and white dahlias was found yesterday tied to the girder of the Milan gasoline station from which Benito Mussolini's body dangled before a howling mob after his execution by partisans last year.

A ribbon around the flowers said: "To the Duce from his most faithful."

Meanwhile Mussolini's body, recovered in a Pavia monastery two weeks ago, was reported en route to a new secret place under heavy police escort as authorities prepared to prosecute ten persons allegedly involved in the theft of the body from a Milan potter's field last April.

British Births Rise

Over 20,00 more babies were born in England and Wales in the first five months of this year than in the corresponding 1945 period, London reports. Deaths also increased, but by only 6.430. The total of births for five motnhs was 153,988.
